VOLUME XXI — NUMBER 4

OCTOBER 10, 1959

One of the best selling albums of the year has been the Verve Records album, "Inside Shelley Berman". The sales on this package have probably exceeded any other spoken word record in the history of the record business. Because of the album's success, Berman is one of the most sought-after acts in the country. He is currently set to open in the new Broadway musical comedy, "Boys Against Girls", and his new Verve LP, "Outside Shelley Berman" is set for release in the near future.

Is “Lastability” Returning?

Ever since the advent of Rock and Roll music as the music of the 1950 to 1960 decade, one of the toughest pills record company brass had to swallow was the “one-shot artist”.

Prior to the Rock and Roll era, artists had what we refer to as “lastability”. If a newcomer made it, so to speak, the record company was, more often than not, sure that the given artist would remain in the public limelight for a considerable length of time. Although it was too much to expect an artist to come up with a smash every time out, one could count on a fair share of hits from this personality. As a result one group of top artists dominated the best seller list regularly.

When Rock and Roll debuted, with it came “one-shot-ism”. No matter how big an artist’s record hit, it became almost impossible to get the artist to repeat. Of course there are a chosen few performers born out of the R & R era who have weathered the storm and who today are selling records as strongly as ever. But such a performer came along once in several thousand.

However, in the past year or so we have noticed a definite increase in the number of artists who have been able to follow-up their initial successes with not only one additional hit, but a chain of hits.

Is the singles record buyer becoming less fickle? Is there a greater chance today for an artist with a smash single to “last”? A close look at the current best seller list would certainly lead one to believe this is true. Of course there are always numerous newcomers. But examine the Top 100 chart closely and notice how many newer names have repeated with consistency of late.

There is probably no single reason that can explain this phenomenon. But perhaps the fact that the singles record buyer is beginning to purchase hits at a younger age each year, gives him more time during his teen age disk buying career to follow one or more favorite artists.

Whether this is the beginning of a trend or just one big coincidence only time will tell.

But let’s hope it lasts. Because a group of artists who can turn out hits with greater consistency than we’ve witnessed in the business during the past seven years is certainly a solid asset to the record industry. Now companies can go back (as already evidenced in several cases) to spending time and money in building personalities who can show a return on investments over a long time period.

It looks like a healthy development.

"THE BEST OF EVERYTHING" (2:37)
[Miller ASCAP—Cahn, Newman]

"CHERIE" (2:47) [Cathryl ASCAP—Prescott, Coldin]

JOHNNY MATHIS (Columbia 41491)

● Mathis should have a quick chart companion to his recent "Misty" outing with the edition of "The Best Of Everything." The beautiful title ballad is warbled by Johnny in the up-coming flick based on the best-seller. Superb Glenn Osser ork and choral backdrop. Also of chart importance is the very pretty ballad coupler, "Cherie." Ralph Burns' crew warmly backs up on this end.

"HAPPY ANNIVERSARY" (2:47)
[Korwin ASCAP—Stillman, Allen]

"WHO DO YOU THINK YOU
ARE?" (3:10)
[Woodbine BMI—
Sherman, Keller]

FOUR LADS (Columbia 41497)

● "Happy Anniversary" is the warm main-title of the flick translation of the B'way success, "Anniversary Waltz," and both the Four Lads and Jane Morgan size it up with a fine sentimental touch. It looks like a big song. Flipsides on both decks also rate attention. The Lads are excellent on "Who Do You Think You Are?," a light romantic number that offers much in melody and lyrics. Miss Morgan stays tender on the pretty oldie, "C'est La Vie, C'est L'Amour."

"HAPPY ANNIVERSARY" (2:52)
[Korwin ASCAP—Stillman, Allen]

"C'EST LA VIE, C'EST
L'AMOUR" (2:58)
[Garland ASCAP—

JANE MORGAN (Kapp 305)

"THERE'S A GIRL" (2:10) [Hillary, Ultra BMI—Alpert, Adler]

"MY HEART SINGS" (2:19) [Hillary, Ultra BMI—Alpert, Adler]

JAN & DEAN (Dore 531)

● Jan & Dean's Dore newie sports a contagious "Baby Talk"-like novelty opener that's gonna immediately catch the teenager's fancy. Tagged "There's A Girl," it's a romantic rock-a-cha cha that has that money-making sparkle. There's more of the same teen-appealing sounds on the enticing "My Heart Sings" backer-upper. Two real cuties.

"COOL WATER" (3:20)
[American ASCAP—Nolan]

"SUNRISE SERENADE" (2:28)
[Jewel ASCAP—Lawrence, Carle]

ROGER WILLIAMS (Kapp 301)

● Take your pick of Roger Williams' latest Kapp duo, "Cool Water" or "Sunrise Serenade". Both sturdies are sprinkled with Williams' magic chart dust and should easily find their ways onto the deejays' turntables. They're done up, easy-on-the-ear, fox trot style with Marty Gold's outfit backing up on the former while Hal Kanner's aggregation does likewise on the latter.

"ALWAYS" (2:11) [Irving Berlin ASCAP—Berlin]

"SYMPHONY" (2:31) [Chappell & Co. ASCAP—Alstone, Lawrence]

SAMMY TURNER (Bigtop 3029)

● Another Irving Berlin favorite steps back into the wax spotlight. This time it's "Always" and it's wonderfully brought up-to-date, beat-ballad style by Sammy Turner, who handed in a smash re-styling of "Lavender Blue". Chalk up a first rate arrangement by Stan Applebaum. Ditto for the soft cha-cha up-dating of "Symphony." Very pretty offering that can also happen.

"STARRY EYED" (2:25)
[Mansion ASCAP—
Shuman, Garson]

"WITHOUT YOUR LOVE" (1:34)
[Pambill ASCAP—
Shuman, Garson]

GARY STITES (Carlton 521)

● Chances are "Starry Eyed" will turn out to be Gary Stites' initial top ten entry. Chanter, femme vocal crew and ork all blend in ear-arresting fashion on a most attractive cha cha beat love affair. Watch it zoom up the lists. The tearful, ballad-with-a-beat "Without Your Love" presents a fine companion piece. Splendid male combo support here.

CARMEN McRAE
(Kapp 302)

B+ "THE MORE I SEE YOU" (2:25)
[Bregman, Vocco & Conn ASCAP—Gorden, Warren] A fine vocal appearance for the pretty oldie. Stylist warmly caresses the opus, while the Dick Wolfe ork (plus chorus) lends a soft-beat hand. Can come-across.

B "DON'T CRY JOE" (Let Her Go, Let Her Go, Let Her Go) (2:47)
[Harms ASCAP—] Very similar try on another years-back number.

PETE SEEGER
(Folkways 202)

B+ "ONE DAY AS I RAMBLED (I Never Will Marry)" [Melody Trails BMI—Gladden] The noted folk singer-authority does a beautiful job on the haunting folk tune. Deck can be a "left-field" chart item.

B "SKIP TO MY LOU" [Melody Trails BMI—Adapt. by Stanton, Cavanaugh] An appropriately spirited rendition (with chorus) of the folk favorite.

JOHNNY LOVE
(Mercury 71492)

B "LEAD ME" (2:23) [Tee Pee ASCAP—Locke, James] Songster Love is commanding on the fervent ballad request. Backing is a lush ork-chorus soft beat affair. Stands a chance.

B "BLESS YOUR HEART" (2:28)
[Eden BMI—Benton, Stevenson] Love is strong again on the sentimental.

TONY OSBORNE
(Roulette 4189)

B "THE WINDOW OF PARIS" (2:11) [Kahl BMI—Osborne] A fine continental ork novelty. Foundation is a catchy melody, and the Osborne crew approach it with a contagious ork sparkle. A bright programming piece.

B "THE MAN FROM MARSEILLES" (2:07) [Patricia BMI—Osborne] A soprano sax heads another merry ork making.

RUSS REGAN
(Capitol 4280)

B "ADULTS ONLY" (2:06)
[Beechwood BMI—Regan] Cute rhythmic about guy and gal teenagers who can't go to "adult only" French flick (presumably starring Brigitte Bardot) or a nitery (all they want there is soda pop). Good sound and clever theme could get deck around.

B "JUST THE TWO OF US" (2:05)
[Beechwood BMI—Regan] A rock-slinger that has an affable way about it.

LINA LYNNE
(Toppa 1008)

B+ "LINA'S DOLL" (2:00) [Durf & Mixer BMI—Coe] Good-sounding instrumental (the Storms combo) with now-and-then cries of a doll and Miss Lynne asking the child to go to sleep. The percussive sounds are strong. Could move.

B "FIVE GOLDEN CHARMS" (2:00) [Durf & Mixer BMI—Coe] The thrush is spotlighted on a pretty folk-like romantic.

LOUIS ARMSTRONG
(Verve 10182)

B "NOBODY KNOWS THE TROUBLE I'VE SEEN" (2:44)
[P.D.] Armstrong touches upon the great spiritual with the singing-trumpet warmth he is so capable of. String ork is extremely soft.

B "THAT OLD FEELING" (2:41)
[Leo Feist ASCAP—Fain, Brown] The notable artist is affably loose on the fine standby. Both sides offer jocks choice programming.

IVY'S
(Coed 518)

B+ "LOST WITHOUT YOU" (2:30)
[Winneton BMI—Luttig, Starcevic, McCluske, Knowlan] A soft and inviting blend by the boy & girl on a pleasing 1940's-type ballad. Nice legit sound here.

B "ALL I WANT" (2:05) [George Paxton ASCAP—Bell] Same kind of appealing sentimentality on this end.

GENE BUA
(Warner Bros. 5098)

B "BLUE-EYED DARLIN'" (2:16)
[Coliseum BMI—Bua] Inviting soft rhythm outing. The throaty Bua delivery is backed by pro teen vocal-instrumental thoughts. Kids can take to side.

B "DANNY" (2:20) [Rosarita ASCAP—Wise, Wiseman] Bua is effective in a minor key. Good tearful.

JIMMY JONES
(Epic 9339)

B "WHENEVER YOU NEED ME" (2:32) [Roosevelt BMI—Singleton, Evelyn] Vocalist is appealingly gentle on the touching ballad. Will do very well for "dreamy" teen programming.

B "YOU FOR ME TO LOVE" (2:32) [Roosevelt BMI—Scott] Jones gives the melodic romantic an effective soft "cry" and result will affect youngsters. Two fine ballad sessions.

"TALK TO ME" (2:58) [Barton ASCAP—Snyder, Kahan, Vallee]

"THEY CAME TO CORDURA" [Maraville ASCAP—Cahn, Van Huesen]

FRANK SINATRA (Capitol 4284)

● "Talk To Me" is a class ballad that Sinatra handles at his intimate best. Given enough exposure (and figure jocks to provide it), this ballad beaut can score big and become a sequel to the artists' "High Hopes" click. Performer is highly expressive on the moving Spanish-type coupler, a flick main-title.

"(Love Is A) CAREER" (2:12)
[Famous ASCAP—Cahn, Van
Heusen]

"I AIN'T GONNA LEAD THIS LIFE NO MORE" (2:20)
[Court ASCAP—Drake]

DEAN MARTIN (Capitol 4287)

● Songster could produce a follow-up to his "An Evening In Roma" chart-maker with either portion. "(Love Is A) Career" is a fine romantic (from a pic of the same name) that lends itself to Martin's easy swing way. Familiar folk-styled delight, "I Ain't Gonna Lead This Life No More," is read with a fine swing-novelty touch.

"TENNESSEE WALTZ" [Acuff-Rose BMI—King, Stewart]

"CHARLENE" [Jat Texical BMI—Spring, Summers]

JERRY FULLER (Challenge 59057)

● A wild version of "Tennessee Waltz" from the songster, who clicked awhile back with "Betty, My Love." The furious instrumental things that go on behind the fast Fuller delivery are sure to delight the kids. A Bobby Comstock (Blaze) rock rendition of the opus is getting action and Fuller's should soon be battling for honors. Fuller's got an "action" deck, too. Though an easier track, "Charlene" has balled excitement. Could move, too.

"GOOD NEWS" [Shalimar BMI—Blackwell]

"THAT WAS ME" [Jon-Ware BMI—Glover]

THE FIESTAS (Old Town 1074)

● "Good News" should travel round wax circles real fast. It's the Fiestas' newest and its taken for an attention-getting ride. "So Fine"-quick beat ride. Delightful dual-mart romancer. "That Was Me," on the other half, is a catchy novelty rocker from the Coasters-school. There's big pop-r&b coin in store here too.

"THE CROSSROADS OF LOVE" (1:58)

[Jack Gold ASCAP—Edwards, Wayne]

"WHATEVER HAPPENS" (1:50) [Greta BMI—Mure, Wolf]

TEMPOS (Climax 105)

● The chart-hitting ingredients of "See You In September" are found in "The Crossroads Of Love" (clefied by "September's" writers) and put the boys in a good position to score again. It's a date to keep close tabs on. "Whatever Happens" is solid material presented with a dynamic ballad touch.

"WHY DON'T YOU BELIEVE ME" (1:57)
[Brandom ASCAP—Rodde, Laney, Douglas]

"THE MEANING OF THE BLUES" (2:10)
[Sheldon BMI—Wolf, Raleigh]

KALIN TWINS (Decca 30977)

● Twosome brings "Why Don't You Believe Me" (the one-time Joni James' smash) into a bright teen light, giving opus a go resembling their "When" winner. Lookout for this track. "The Meaning Of The Blues" is an interesting, upbeat essay.

BOB & JOE

(Columbia 41487)

B+ "STOOD UP" (2:10) [Atlantic BMI — Welch, Merlo] Boys are lively on the catchy beat theme about a fella who's standing on the corner wondering whether he'll be stood up by his gal. Has a sound that could score, for the comers.

B "HAS SHE GOT A SISTER" (2:13) [Nancoz BMI—Welch, Merlo] Things stay on the upbeat and again the sound is teen-wise.

TEAM MATES

(Le Cam 706)

B "IF ONLY I HAD KNOWN" (1:58) [LeBill BMI — Howard] Another plaintive pose.

B "SOONER OR LATER" (2:15) [LeBill BMI—Smith] A smooth teen-romantic warble by the lead on an opus that's a rock adaptation of the Stephan Foster favorite, "Beautiful Dreamer." Wistful appeal here.

JOHNNY FREEDOM

(Alert 444)

B "A SAILOR'S PRAYER" (2:20) [Margie ASCAP—Catalano, Manfred] Freedom sincerely surveys the fervent prayer of a sailor that he return to the love of his gal. Chorus opens with a chant of "Taps." Effective teen ballad issue.

C+ "IF YOU GO STEADY WITH ME" (2:09) [Admiration BMI—Catalano, Kulaga] Another heart-felt beat-ballad session.

JOHNNY FALLIN

(Capitol 4283)

B "IF I COULD WRITE A LOVE SONG" (2:12) [Central BMI—Fallin, Rhodes] This ballad rhythmic contains fine-sounding beat things, including an over-all haunting quality. Fallin and combo-chorus friends may have something here.

B "WILD STREAK" (2:05) [Central BMI — Fallin, Rhodes] The songster rocks hard and kids will get the idea.

WILL MERCER

(Sun 329)

B+ "YOU'RE JUST MY KIND" (2:26) [Knox BMI—Smith, Barton] Session has an upbeat sound that's tried-and-true, but delivered in a pro style by Mercer and support. Kids will like.

B "BALLAD OF ST. MARKS" (2:13) [Knox BMI — Barton] Mercer nicely essays the melodic folk-styled tale.

BOB ELLIS

(EK 100)

B "TOOT, TOOT, TOOTSIE," "YES SIR, THAT'S MY BABY," "THE SHEIK," "ROW, ROW ROW" (2:55) [ASCAP] Songster offers a lively account of the four durables. May get good "looking back" programming.

C+ "LA ROSITA" (3:00) [DuPont] The sentimental oldie gets a light swing from Ellis.

CANNONBALL ADDERLEY'S
FIVE STARS (Jazz)

(Blue Note 1738)

B "SOMETHIN' ELSE, PART 1" [Groove BMI—Davis] The alto saxist's crew breezes nicely through the session, with Adderley and unbilled trumpeter doing the solo work.

B "SOMETHIN' ELSE, PART 2" [Groove BMI — Davis] Adderley does most of the solo talking here. Sides are from an LP of the same name.

JERRY LYNN

(KRCa 102)

C+ "POOR UNFORTUNATE ME" (2:29) [Ken-Rick BMI — Geam] An OK country-flavored lament by Lynn, with a sax heading the combo beat display.

C "DON'T WANT YOUR MONEY, HONEY" (1:55) [Ken-Rick BMI —Lynn] Songster rocks on this portion.

MELLO-LARKS

(Hansen 334)

B "LITTLE GREEN SNAKE" (1:57) [Valyr ASCAP—Merrill] Talented song team effectively recites a tango novelty from the upcoming musical, "Take Me Along." Can receive good jock activity.

B "DOWN, DOWN, DOWN (Where The Wurzbürger Flows)" (1:45) [Harvard BMI—Belmonte] The ancient waltz lilter in a sunny appropriate ump-pah-pah setting. Side with good feeling.

TOMMY DISHAW

(D&C 500)

B "WE'RE GONNA ROCK" [Bryden BMI — Dishaw] Songster Dishaw and combo-chorus setting sock out the convention ditty in pro style. Deck has hop turn-table appeal.

C+ "DREAM GIRL" [Bryden BMI — Dishaw] A pleasing ballad essay on this end.

"HEY LITTLE DARLIN'" (2:26) [Wonder BMI—Bellusci]

"ONLY YOUR HEART" (2:24) [Wonder, E&E BMI—Bellusci]

TONY BELLUS (NRC 035)

● Bellus, who enjoyed a long and healthy sales ride in his "Robbin' The Cradle", should follow suit with a similarly-arranged, up beat stanza, "Hey Little Darlin' (What Do You Think Of Me?)". Flipside, Tony emotionally carves out an enticing fish-beat'er tagged "Only Your Heart". Strong combo-chorus support on both these chart threats.

"HIGH SCHOOL, U.S.A." [Pete, Progressive BMI—Royster, Leader]
"PLEA OF LOVE" [Progressive BMI—Facenda]

TOMMY FACENDA (Atlantic 51 to 78)

● Reason for the 51 to 78 disk number is that 20 different versions of the tune, "High School, U.S.A.", are being shipped around the country. Gimmick is the mentioning of a host of local high schools tailored for each of the areas. It's a bright rocker, loaded with commercial vocal and instrumental sounds, that newcomer, Tommy Facenda and chorus, drive out solid sales authority. Could step way out. Fetching rock-a-ballad completes the pairing.

"TAKE ME ALONG" (2:35) [Valyr ASCAP—Merrill]

"OH BABY DON'T CRY" (2:31) [Tri-Park BMI—Hammer]

LONNIE SATTIN (Warner Brothers 512)

● The oft-recorded title tune from the Bob Merrill-scored, soon-due-on-Broadway musical, "Take Me Along", could find Lonnie Sattin's version leading the pack into hitsville. Chorus and strings slickly back Sattin as he rocks along in a bright Jackie Wilson manner. Looks like a winner from this end. Thrilling, inspirational showcase on the "Oh Baby Don't Cry", the hard, middle beat romantic coupler.

"ANYTHING YOU WANNA DO (I Wanna Do With You)" (2:17)
[Kahl BMI—Medley, Passman]

"LIKE WOW" (2:17) [Cree Cree BMI—Eckstine, Alfred]

BILLY ECKSTINE (Roulette 4199)

● Eckstine has his best teen-directed outing to date on the bright, "Ain't That Love"-type handclapper, "Anything You Wanna Do (I Wanna Do With You)". Can do the chart trick. Lower-lid is a hefty rock display.

"GEORGIE BEATNIK" (2:05)
[Almimo BMI—Randazzo,
Barberis, Weinstein]

"SORROW" (1:55)
[Unart BMI—Randazzo,
Barberis, Weinstein]

BOBBY & BILLY (United Artists 188)

● Initial Don Costa A&R dates for UA are strong contenders for the charts. "Georgie Beatnik" is a contagious tale about kids who want to be beatniks like Georgie; "Sorrow" is a fine Latin-rock rhythmic from the boys and Costa ork. Sides are prize teen attractions.

"DREAM OF ME" (2:10)
[Winneton BMI—Keyes]

"OO DARLIN'" (2:30)
[Winneton BMI—Donahue]

BILLY DONAHUE (Coed 519)

● Songster Donahue can rate with the teeners with both ballad stands here. Both "Dream Of Me" and "Oo Darlin'" are affectionate and tuneful romancers, with the latter date getting a harder beat. (Both settings have a Latin-rock feel). Watch this boy and his work here.

Could be that Carl Smith, Jimmy Newman and Wilma Lee & Stoney Cooper will kick up loads of pop-country excitement with their newest releases (see country reviews).

ERNIE FELICE
(RCA Victor 7606)

B+ "CAUSE I LOVE YOU, THAT'S WHY" (2:45) [Chas. N. Daniels ASCAP — Tepper, Bennett] Felice understandingly delivers the emotional ballad, while the Shorty Rogers ork maintains an interesting rock-a-string format. Could move with exposure.

B "WALK THE BEBOP WALK" (1:42) [Allied ASCAP — Holt] OK rock zest from songster Felice and the ork-chorus. Lively offering for a hop.

DENNIS BELL
(Top Rank 2015)

B "MAKE ME A DREAMER" (2:31) [Southern ASCAP — Garson, Shuman] Persuasive ballad stand by the songster on the feelingful romancer. Can attract teeners.

B "I'D LIKE HER TO BE" (2:02) [Arch ASCAP — Evans, Fleisch-hacker] Bell makes a gentle beat case of the tender number.

WYNONA CARR
(Specialty 678)

B+ "GIVE ME YOUR HAND TO HOLD" (2:16) [Venice Cherritown BMI—Townsend, Carr] Expressive warbling by the lark, with all-out rock-a-string lushness from the ork-chorus. Deck speaks beautifully to the youngsters.

B "HOW MANY TIMES?" (2:16) [Venice BMI — Carr] A combo supports the performer on her R&B-styled ballad essay. Fine side.

AUDREY BRYANT
(Do-Ra-Me 1405)

B "SOMEONE LIKE YOU" (2:03) [Ashna BMI — Robbins, Biggs, Biggs] Lots of feeling in the lark's handling of the sincere sentimental. Chorus adds a good emotional touch. OK pop-R&B appeal.

C "LET'S TRADE A LITTLE" (2:00) [Ashna BMI—Nelson] Involved rocker with some Latin thoughts in the combo set-up.

MAX GREGER
(Decca 30984)

B+ "MOSCOW NIGHTS" (2:27) [P.D.—Soloviev, Sedoy, Matusovsky] A pretty Russian top-tune is performed with an inviting light up-beat sound by the Greger ork-chorus. Interest in things Russian can get this import around.

B "STENKA - RAZIN (And The Princes)" (2:12) [P.D.] A familiar Russian-flavored tune gets a modern swing adaptation. Two fine instrumentals.

OVERTONES
(ABC-Paramount 10053)

B "HAWAIIAN HAZE" (3:00) [Moonmist BMI — Gambella, Brown] Inviting melody in a relaxed Hawaiian vein receives unusual, instrumentation, headed by mandolin-like sounds.

C+ "SMOKE RINGS" (2:20) [American Academy ASCAP — Gifford, Washington] Leading sound here seems to be a souped-up violin.

SILVER BELLS
(Anex 22103)

B "NO MORE SUNSHINE" (2:05) [Brunswick BMI — Silver] This rhythmic features one of the Belles upfront. Has a spiritual-like feel.

C+ "CANDY KISSES AND BUB-BLY GUM" (2:06) [Brunswick BMI—Stewart] Gals are involved in a gay rock novelty here.

MILLS BROS.
(Dot 15987)

B "TAKE ME ALONG" (2:00) [Valyr ASCAP — Merrill] A bright vocal-combo account of the oft-cut title tune from the forthcoming B'way musical. Should tune get acceptance, this version by the vet songsters will get lots of coin.

B "YOU ALWAYS HURT THE ONE YOU LOVE" (3:12) [Pickwick ASCAP—Roberts, Fisher] Familiar lead at first solos easily over the ancient and later swings with his fellow songsters.

WREG TRACEY
(Anno 1105)

B+ "ALL I WANT IS YOU" (2:20) [Ro-Gor BMI — Gordy, Davis, Gordy] Interesting things happen in the setting for Tracey's relaxed reading. Feature is a catchy soft-Latin-rock beat from the combo plus well-placed string and femme chorus work. Deck can show-up.

B "TAKE ME BACK (I Was Wrong)" (2:23) [Ro-Gor BMI — Davis, Gordy] This ballad pose also offers a teen know-how sound on support.

KOOKIE JONES
(Shel 1011)

C+ "LOVE IS A STORY" (2:44) [Leary & Wallace BMI—Leary, Wallace] A heavy-beat backs the Jones' ballad delivery. Tune has teen appeal.

C+ "YEARNING" (2:05) [Leary & Wallace BMI — Leary, Wallace] The rhythmic road on this end and the kids will appreciate.

(Recorte 415)

IMPACTS
(RCA Victor 7609)

EARL GRANT
(Decca 30983)

B+ "ALL FOR THE BEST" (2:21) [Atlantic BMI — Soloway, Wolfe] Songster does well as he sentimentalizes on a number that recalls "It's Just A Matter Of Time." First-rate Jack Pleis rock-a-string backing. Might be a strong item.

JOE REISMAN
(Roulette 4198)

INTERLUDES

(Valley 1005)

B "SCANDALOUS" (2:30) [Valley BMI—Milanese] Deck is novelty romantic reminder of "The Jones' Boy" click of some years back. Arrangement has a kidding "mystery" feel and songsters are fine on the ditty. Cute take.

C+ "HEARTBREAKER" (2:10) [Valley BMI—Milanese] A wistful ballad stand by a lead.

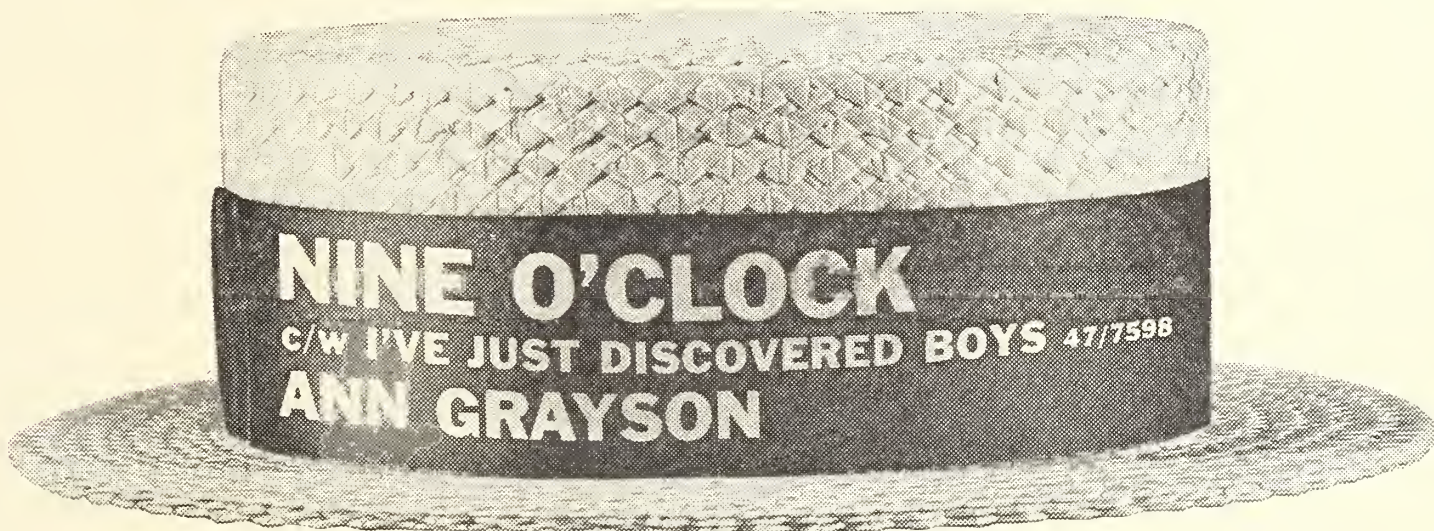

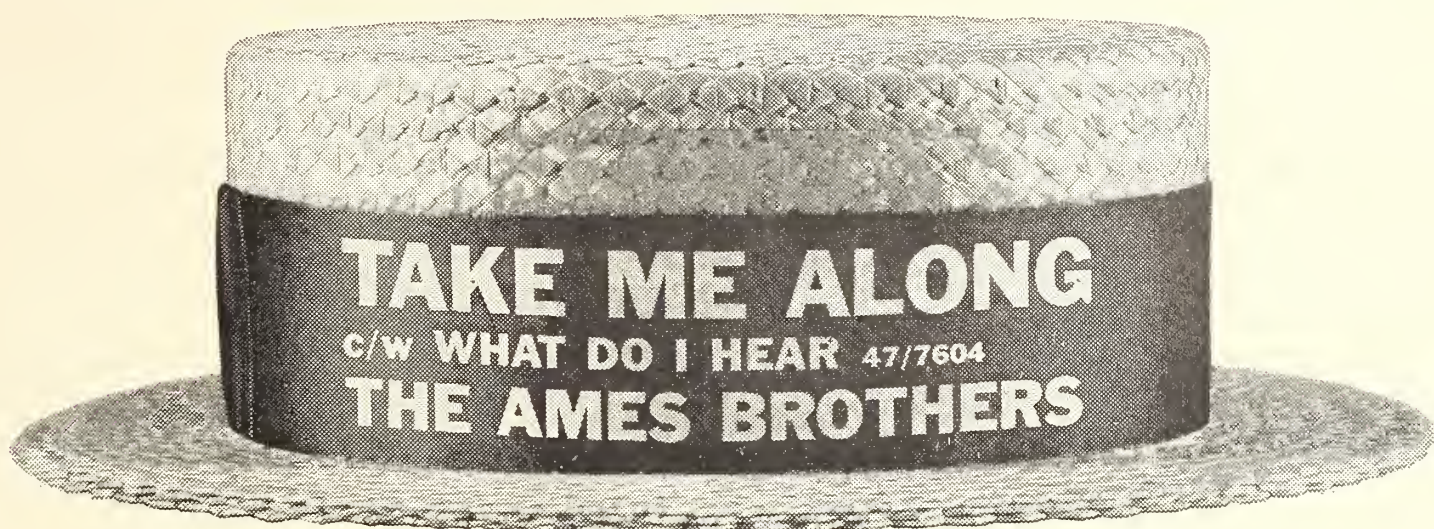

TONY DODGE

(Square 101)

B "FIVE YEARS" (2:05) [Michele ASCAP — Silverman, Salwitz] A dramatic about a guy who gets five years for a "hot rod ride." Interesting percussion sound supports.

C+ "THE LEGEND OF TERRY SILS" (1:55) [Mode ASCAP—Silverman, Salwitz] Another dramatic about a man being chased.

The Cash Box Best Bets

THREE SUNS (RCA Victor 7608)

B+ "TWILIGHT MEMORIES" (2:40) [Aldon BMI—Nevins, Albertine] The popular instrumentalists may have something here. Side is a good-sounding, easy-go beat affair on a theme resembling "Twilight Time" (also co-lected by Three Suns' member Al Nevins). Should be watched.

B+ "SUNDAY SHOWCASE THEME" (2:25) [Andrew ASCAP—Adler] Harder beat is given to the theme of the NBC-TV show. It's a sound that can catch-on, too.

ADDRISI BROS. (Del-Fi 4125)

B+ "IT'S LOVE" (1:58) [Sparrow BMI—Sparks] Boys & combo supply the kind of infectious beat that can get the sales recognition their recent "Cherrytone" outing did. Can delight kids to a chart stand-point. Eye it.

B+ "THE OLD SALT MINE" (2:07) [Zuma Bobby Tunes ASCAP—Lane, Rustigan] The classroom is the "old salt mine" in this contagious back-to-school novelty. You've got to watch this side, too.

ROBERT PEEBLES (Jax 1001)

B+ "THIS LITTLE LIGHT OF MINE" (2:06) [Kenny Marlow Wonder BMI—Isle, Isle] The rhythmic pose here possesses a sound that can move. Peebles starts off easy, but soon he and combo-chorus go into the colorful display. Watch it.

B "GIFT FROM HEAVEN" (2:25) [Kenny Marlow BMI—Isle] Whole of deck is concerned with a sentimental expression.

20th CENTURY STRINGS (20th Fox 161)

B+ "ST. LOUIS BLUES" (2:33) [Handy Bros. ASCAP—Handy] Highly exciting ork reading of the classic, with the strings getting solid brass and percussion pounding. Can step-out strong.

B+ "VAYA CON DIOS" (3:20) [Ardmore ASCAP—Russell, James, Pepper] A soothing string treatment of the lovely melody, a one-time Les Paul-Mary Ford success. Could move, too. Sides, from the ork's "Premier Performance" LP, are directed by Hugo Montenegro.

TITUS TURNER (Glover 201)

B+ "WE TOLD YOU NOT TO MARRY" (2:05) [Jon Ware BMI—Bernard] An interesting "continuation" of the current Lloyd Price smash, "I'm Gonna Get Married," and almost a replica of the latter. Should get plays and could show-up.

B "TAKING CARE OF BUSINESS" (2:01) [Jon Ware BMI—Bernard] Turner does well as he socks out the blueser. Good combo support includes a hopping sax. Much for teenagers to be thankful for here.

ADAM SINGERS (Palette 5034)

B+ "UNDER MOSCOW SKIES" (2:21) [Zodiac BMI—Aleda, Rolle, Adams, Barnes] A fine male lead-chorus rendition of the very appealing ballad that's a current click in Russia. Sentimental soft-beat ork setting. Bears attention.

B "TWO BLUE PIGEONS" (2:40) [Zodiac BMI—Adams, Barnes] Chorus does a colorful job on the lively folk-type novelty. Novel sound.

HARVEY ANDERSON MODERN JAZZ QUARTET (Bayou 704)

B+ "MONDAY NIGHT AT 8 P.M." (2:45) [Cambella LeBill BMI—Ecker] Much in jazz-inclined sound interest here. Session is a light swinger, headed by a flute. A commercial jazz stand that can come through.

B "JIVARO" (2:10) [Cambella LeBill BMI—Ecker] The format here reflects "Quiet Village" thinking. Good sounding.

FRED NEIL (Epic 9334)

B+ "SECRET, SECRET" [Neil] The songster eases invitingly through the tender teen sentimental. Setting is delicate and whistle is included near deck's end. This greatly appealing side can make it.

B "LOVE'S FUNNY" [Neil] This date also presents the performer in a warm light, though the beat is stronger.

3-D'S (Brunswick 55152)

B+ "THE HAPPIEST BOY AND GIRL" (2:21) [Bell-Kaye BMI—Petze] Sure-handed ballad stand by the team on the strong teen affair. Strong lead is backed by some good vocal-combo ballad gimmicks. Teeners will feel for side.

B "NOTHIN' TO WEAR" (2:20) [World Sheraton ASCAP—Mysels, Saffer] Boys show novelty finesse on this infectious outing about a gal who says she nothing to wear, though a full closet of clothes proves otherwise.

DARRELL HOWE (Jamie 1136)

B+ "I MAKE A WISH" (2:00) [Mine Saracen BMI—Horn, Abrams] There's potent rock-a-string work here. Songster Howe does well on the pretty plaintive, with the ork-chorus providing affectionate support. Keep in mind.

B "GONNA GO ROUND" (2:25) [Jamie Saracen BMI—Regan] A "Kansas City"-type beat. Good "jing-a-jing" chant from the chorus.

EMJAYS (Paris 538)

B+ "OVER THE RAINBOW" (2:49) [Leo Feist ASCAP—Harburg, Arlen] The great standard is approached with good teen emotion by the group. Lead handles the lyrics, while the other songsters chant effectively. Striking teen effort to watch.

B "COOKIE JAR" (2:12) Montauk BMI—Evans, Lloyd, Love, Fox] A merry handclapper provides a fine change-of-pace coupler.

MARLBORO SAXOPHONE QUINTET (Signature 12011)

B "MOONLIGHT SERENADE" (2:20) [Robbins ASCAP—Miller, Parrish] Saxs are smooth on the Glenn Miller-associated favorite, with triplets making a nod to the teeners. Stands a chance for chart success.

B "I'LL WALK ALONE" (2:47) [Mayfair ASCAP—Styne, Cahn] Another standard of the same vintage is given a teen-wise treatment.

ANN GRAYSON (RCA Victor 7598)

B "NINE O'CLOCK" (1:56) [Valry ASCAP—Merrill] Pretty sentimental from the upcoming "Take Me Long" song & dancer is rendered with soft teen appeal by the thrush. Multi-tracking is effective. Can move.

B "I'VE JUST DISCOVERED BOYS" (1:58) [Zest BMI—Smith, Smith] Things really happen on this exciting upbeat novelty. Lots of rock color.

TONY BELLUS (NRC 040)

B+ "LITTLE DREAMS" (2:09) [Wonder BMI—Isle] Bellus—"Robbin' The Cradle" to his chart credit—could have another success story with the infectious goings-on here. The Bellus vocal is backed by an excellent rhythm display by both the combo and chorus. Can go over big.

B+ "YOUNG GIRLS" (2:20) [Wonder Kenny Marlow BMI—Isle] Catchy, folk-type ditty (fine teen format) is recited well by Bellus, who receives fine touches from the drummer. Could get places, too. Sessions were culled from artist's "Robbin' The Cradle" LP.

BILLY & EDDIE (Top Rank 2017)

B+ "THE KING IS COMING BACK" (2:08) [Peer International BMI—Bennett, Bennett, Brown] A solid beginning of what should prove a long list of decks devoted to a rock welcome-home for Elvis Presley. Songsters rock well and get good sock work from the combo. Could click.

B "COME BACK, BABY" (1:48) [Peer International BMI—Petty, Neil] More good rhythm stuff from the team, though in a light vein.

WILLIS SANDERS & EMBERS (Coral 62146)

B+ "TIME OUT FOR TEARS" (2:10) [Republic BMI—Schiff, Berman] Appealing ballad oldie is smoothly revived for teen tastes. Sanders is fine upfront, while Embers provide pro sentimental statements.

B "HUNGRY FOR YOUR LOVE" (2:25) [World Sheraton ASCAP—McFarland] While boys merrily blend on the ditty, deep voice offers humor chants. Bright novelty sound.

COY WERLEY (Sundown 122)

B "OVER YOU" (2:25) [Durf BMI—Werley] Light infectious beat backs the disenchanted, country-inclined Werley essay. Has a sound that could be active.

C+ "BLACKJACK" (2:30) [Durf BMI—Werley] The rock picture brightens here on this driving affair. Combo on both ends is tagged the Blackjacks.

LOMBARDO TWINS (ABC-Paramount 10051)

B "WHEN YOU LOOK AT ME" (3:00) [Dorvi ASCAP—Lombardo, Lombardo] Pretty theme is offered by the keyboard against a strong cha-cha beat. Good listening-dancing product.

C+ "ARABIAN DRUMS" (2:32) [Dorvi ASCAP—Lombardo, Lombardo] A Latin-item from the "weirdo" school, particularly in the work of a falsetto femme.

ENOCH LIGHT ORCH. (Grand Award 1035)

B "GREENSLEEVES" (2:36) [P. D.-Traditional] Light's "vibrant strings" offer a lovely sans-beat reading of the beautiful folk song. Great mood appeal. May just get activity.

B "SCARLET RIBBONS" (2:32) [Mills ASCAP—Danzig, Segal] Strings appropriately soften on another striking melody. It's a first-rate mood stand, too.

CHRISTINE JORGENSEN (Jolt 101)

C+ "NERVOUS JERVIS" (2:33) [Jolt BMI—Owens, Hawkins] Personality, of sex switch fame, offers comments against a good-sounding shuffle beat. Name may get deck some air-time.

C "CRAZY LITTLE MEN" (2:30) [Jolt BMI—Owens, Hawkins, Connell] A novelty that includes speeded-up voices.

Am-Par Makes Outright Purchase Of Grand Award And Subsidiaries

Enoch Light To Continue As A & R Head Of Labels

NEW YORK—A major transaction was revealed last week when it was announced that the Am-Par Record Corp. had made an outright purchase of the Grand Award Record Corp. and its subsidiaries, Waldorf Music Hall, Inc. and Award Publishing Corp. Purchase price was not disclosed.

Hailing the purchase as a "major stride toward the definite establishment of Am-Par as a leading independent firm in the international record industry," Sam Clark, Am-Par prexy, paid high tribute to former Grand Award owner Enoch Light and his associates who organized the five year old Grand Award outfit and nurtured its progress to its current "eminent position in the business of recording, sales and merchandising." Am-Par is a subsid of American Broadcasting - Paramount Theatres Inc.

Both Clark and Light indicated "tremendous optimism" for future operation of the two firms and Clark announced that Light would continue to conduct the recording schedules and much of the administrative details of Grand Award as an executive staff member of the label. Loren Becker, who was sales manager for the diskery prior to its purchase by Am-Par, will work closely with Light under the new set-up.

Clark and Light are especially enthusiastic about the development of the new Command label, which will be devoted to "quality catalog" and what the two execs stated will be "undoubtedly the best evidence of sound reproduction and progress available on the market today." Preliminary releases of Command have already been issued.

Clark made it clear that no plans for changing or interchanging distributorships are being contemplated at this time, "although serious consideration will have to be given some particular areas in the near future."

There are 150 LP's in the Grand Award catalog. In addition, there are the new Command label and two low-priced diskeries, Colortone and Audition, which list at $1.49 in monaural, $2.98 in stereo. The Grand Award label lists at $3.98 in monaural, $4.98 in stereo, while the Command line sells for $4.98 in monaural, $5.98 in stereo. New issues are skedded for this month.

According to Light, there are 150 LP's in the Grand Award catalog, 47 of which have sold at least 100,000 copies each. Top sellers include the Knuckles O'Toole disks, the "Roaring Twenties" LP's and the Light cha-cha sets.

Am-Par is the corporate name for the label names of ABC-Paramount and Apt Records, as well as for Ampco Music, its ASCAP publishing affiliate and Pamco Music, licensed through BMI. In addition to its general operation of recording, sales and merchandising of ABC-Paramount and Apt releases, Am-Par also pioneered in the sales and distribution of other labels, notably Chancellor, Hunt, Addison and Wren. Am-Par is currently celebrating its fourth anniversary.

NEW YORK—United Artists Records is launching a special music campaign for the new Harry Belafonte film, "Odds Against Tomorrow," which will have its world premiere in Chicago on October 14. UA is releasing 2 albums from the film, one of which features the film score written by John Lewis, director of the Modern Jazz Quartet. Lewis utilizes a 22 piece orchestra plus the Modern Jazz Quartet for the score. The other album is an adaptation of the score played by the MJQ. The release of the 2 albums is a follow-up to the successful sound track albums which UA released in connection with "I Want To Live" last year. Both albums will be available in monaural and stereo.

To kick off the campaign, UA is previewing the film for music reviewers, magazine writers, disk jockeys and record retailers in key cities throughout the country to stimulate word-of-the-mouth interest.

Sixteen LP's In Rank's Premier Album Release

NEW YORK — Top Rank International issued eight LPs in its initial album release announced to their distributors October 1. All are available in monaural and stereo (both priced at $3.98).

Featured on the release are two deluxe packages by the Knightsbridge Strings. The first set is titled "The Strings Sing" and includes the hit recording of "Cry." The second Knightsbridge package is titled "The Strings Swing" and features swing standards popularized by the big bands of that era.

The Knightsbridge Strings LPs are packaged in a black single sleeve with a colorful die cut. Others in the premier release are: "The Melody Lingers On," played by Georgie Auld and sung by the Mellolarks; "Double Barrel Marching Dixie" by the Bourbon Street Barons; "My Kind Of Blues" by Debby Moore, a new vocal find; "Dance Everyone Dance" a country club-styled dance set by Phil Bennett & His Orch.; "Presenting The Songsters" an album by the Rochester chorus; "Music For Trapping (Tender, That Is)" by Elliot Lawrence and His Orchestra, strings, with solos by Zoot Sims, Hal McKusick, Urbie Green and other well known moderns.

During the month of October a 10% discount is available to dealers through their Top Rank International distributors. Top Rank International monaural and stereo LPs carry a suggested list price of $3.98.

A special litho binder is being furnished all Top Rank salesmen, and a dealer demonstration record is available for audition purposes. The promotion plans for the premier album release includes the servicing of radio stations with sample LP's, mounted album covers for dealer display, and an advertising program on the consumer and trade levels.

Norman Wienstroer, vice-president and general manager of Top Rank, predicted that the Knightsbridge Strings labums will be among the fastest selling LPs in the country. His enthusiasm is shared by sales director Len Levy who is off to the West Coast to visit distributors and dealers in conjunction with the album program.

Glover Joins Weiss

NEW YORK — Henry Glover has joined Hy Weiss' Old Town and Paradise labels as A&R head and has formed Glover Records in partnership with Weiss. Glover left King Records a month ago to make this move.

The first Glover releases are Titus Turner's "We Told You Not To Marry" b/w "Taking Care Of Business" and Dino's "Run Home Little Girl" b/w "Together, You And Me." Glover arranged and conducted the Arthur Prysock and Fiestas Old Town releases of "My Faith" b/w "I Worry About You" and "That Was Me" b/w "Good News," respectively.

Glover started in music as a trumpeter and arranger with the Buddy Johnson and Lucky Millinder orchestras. While with King, he cut sessions by Bill Doggett ("Honky Tonk"); Little Willie John ("Fever"); Tiny Bradshaw, Otis Williams, the Charms, Jack Dupree, Bubber Johnson and others. He has also written many numbers.

Borgelin Raynote G. M.

HOLLYWOOD — Ray Whitaker, president of Raynote Records, last week announced the promotion of Ed Borgelin to general manager of the firm. Borgelin, who formerly held the post of director of promotion, assumed his new duties last month.

Borgelin announced the release of two new albums on the label—"Cal-Essence" by jazz pianist Calvin Jackson and "Niet? Da! Da!" an album of Russian folk songs.

Borgelin also disclosed that Reggie Perkins, formerly with Dickey Do and the Don'ts, sings the title tunes of two teenage films, "High School Caesar" and "Date Bait," on his first waxing under the Raynote banner. The new general manager said that extensive promotion will be given the disk prior to the opening of these two

Enrica Pacts Green

NEW YORK—Newly formed Enrica Records has pacted jazz trombonist Benny Green to an exclusive contract. First Enrica LP session by Green is scheduled for release October 15.

The label has already released a package, "Garner Plays Garner," featuring Linton Garner, older brother of Erroll, and 3 singles. Enrica is associated with another newcomer, Raecox, also out with an LP (by clarinetist Edmond Hall) and 3 singles.

Allstate Distrib And Tobin Sales Merge

CHICAGO—Paul Glass, prexy of Allstate Record Distributing Company, this city, announced last week that he merged Allstate and Tobin Sales into one distributing organization under one roof at 1450 South Michigan, the headquarters of Allstate Distributors prior to this new expansion.

Glass stated that all of the personnel of Tobin Sales, along with the stock and fixtures, will be shifted to Allstate shortly.

Earl Glicker, who headed Tobin Sales, will be sales manager of the new Allstate set up, according to Glass. Glicker's sales force will be increased to 9 men for the Chicago area.

"The prime reason for this merger," Glass said, "is due to Allstate's good physical set up in a new building and the fact that it offers easier access in record row for the customer."

pictures late this month. Raynote will work closely with the Cory Film Releasing Corp. so that all phases of the promotional plan benefit both organizations.

Perkins is scheduled to make personal appearances in conjunction with the opening of the flicks in various cities throughout the country. Special sleeves are being designed to add display value to the disk.

Crash On Deane TV

BALTIMORE—Columbia recording artist Crash Craddock appears on the Buddy Deane TV show here, where he sang both sides of his first record, "Don't Destroy Me" and "Boom Boom Baby."

After the show, Craddock signed autographs and held a press conference with Baltimore high school newspaper editors.

Earlier in the day, Craddock was guest of honor at a luncheon at the Eager House where he was greeted by local disk jockeys.

The Baltimore appearance was part of a 17 city tour which will take the songster coast to coast by Oct. 20. He is scheduled for a return appearance with Buddy Deane on Oct. 24.

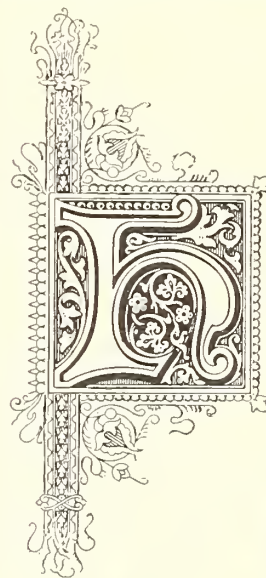

Danny Davis To Liberty

NEW YORK — Trumpeter Danny Davis has signed a 3-year contract with Liberty Records it was revealed last week. In addition, Liberty purchased the master of a new Davis release on his Thunder label, "Glory Bugle." Davis said he would continue to do A&R work for Thunder.

Album Reviews

POPULAR PICKS OF THE WEEK

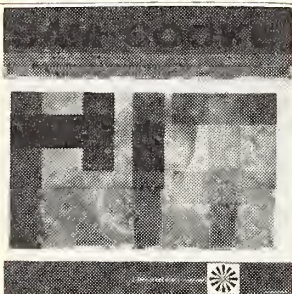

"CONNIFF MEETS BUTTERFIELD"—Ray Conniff and Billy Butterfield—Columbia CL 1346 (Monaural & Stereo)

In front of the familiar, sweet swinging backdrop of Conniff's ork, trumpeter Billy Butterfield solos with taste and passion, adding to the Conniff sound a contrast in style. Playing both open and muted horn, Butterfield provides a spark of fire on such chestnuts as "All the Things You Are," "Beyond the Blue Horizon," "A Love Is Born" and "Time on My Hands." Another fine commercial effort from Conniff; fast moving inventory.

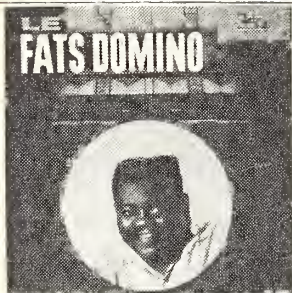

"60 YEARS OF 'MUSIC AMERICA LOVES BEST'"—RCA Victor LM 6074

To commemorate its 60th Anniversary, Victor has issued this special $3.98, two-disk album of historical highlights from its recording past. Beginning with Caruso's "Vesti la Giubba" and ending with Belafonte's "Day-O," the LP's thirty selections include such memorabilia as "Indian Love Call"—Jeanette McDonald & Nelson Eddy, "Ramona"—Gene Austin, "Begin the Beguine"—Artie Shaw, "Bluebird of Happiness"—Jan Peerce and "Prisoner of Love"—Perry Como. Sure-fire smash.

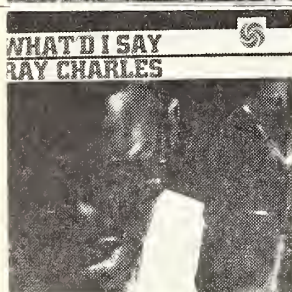

"HIT KIT"—Sam Cooke—Keen 86101

A collection of the Keen artist's past single hits are packaged for quick commercial consumption. The dulcet toned songster is heard on his first hit, "You Send Me," plus "For Sentimental Reasons," "Only Sixteen," "Everybody Loves to Cha Cha" and "Blue Moon" among other successes. Previous sales of the individual records indicate strength and potential of this set.

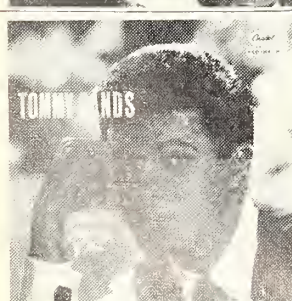

"LET'S PLAY FATS DOMINO"—Imperial LP 9065

Previous single hits by the popular artist comprise this session. Domino swings infectiously through "I'm Gonna Be a Wheel Someday," "When the Saints Go Marching In," "Margie," "Lil' Liza Jane," "I Want to Walk You Home" and others. Album can become a big item on the strength of Domino's continual outpouring of hit singles.

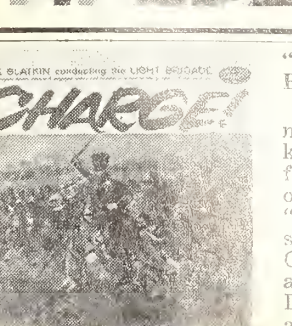

"WHAT'D I SAY"—Ray Charles—Atlantic 8029

Titled after the biggest selling single in Charles' career, this LP is made up of previous singles waxed by the blues artist. Besides the frantically rocking "What'd I Say," the session also includes "Jumpin' in the Mornin'," "Rockhouse," "Roll With My Baby" and "That's Enough," all containing the furious brand of music that Charles creates. Wide popular appeal.

"WHEN I'M THINKING OF YOU"—Tommy Sands—Capitol T 1239 & Stereo ST 1239

A collection of mature love songs are expressively essayed by the young singer. Side one features the songster on six mildly swinging, brightly essayed love tunes (i.e. "Always," "It Had to be You"). On side two Sands explores the sad side of love through such bittersweet ballads as "Fools Rush In," and "I'll Be Seeing You." Nelson Riddle has arranged beautiful backdrops for this album, which continues Sands' new appeal to both teen and adult audiences.

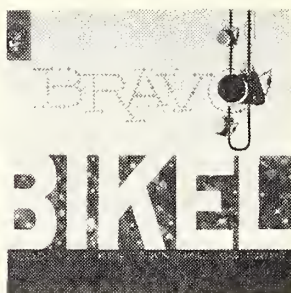

"CHARGE!"—Felix Slatkin conducting the Light Brigade—Capitol T 1270 & Stereo ST 1270

Leo Arnaud has arranged a thrilling array of martial music which is conducted by Felix Slatkin. Instrumentation used are the usual ones found in march music but the emphasis here is on clear brass voicing. Album opens with "Charge," the familiar call in a thrilling new setting. Other selections include "When Johnny Comes Marching Home," "Bagpipes and Drums," a medley of traditional Scottish airs, "Fifes and Drums," a medley of traditional marching themes, and two others. Audiophile special.

"CLYDE"—Clyde McPhatter—Atlantic 8031

A compilation of the artist's previous singles for the label presents McPhatter in a light that will delight his many fans. Included are such hits as "Since You've Been Gone" and "A Lover's Question" plus "Lovey Dovey," "Try Try Baby" and "I Can't Stand Up Alone." Good teen merchandise.

"BRAVO BIKE!"—Theodore Bikel Town Hall Concert—Elektra 175

The magnetism of a live Bikel concert is effectively captured on disk. Bikel, an accomplished actor and folk singer (he sings in twenty languages), enchanted and thrilled Town Hall audiences twice this year and the best of the two nights are contained herein, embellished by Bikel's humorous introductions and interjections. Selections include songs in Russian, French, Spanish, Yiddish, Hebrew, Serbian and others, plus a reading of "Digging the Weans," a poem by Roberth Nathan. Magnificent performances.

"MITZI GAYNOR SINGS THE LYRICS OF IRA GERSHWIN"—Verve MG V-2115

Miss Gaynor is a thoroughly enjoyable purveyor of the delightful lyrics by Ira Gershwin. The set is a cross sampling of Ira Gershwin's work with his many collaborators—George Gershwin, Vernon Duke, Harold Arlen, Kurt Weill—and reveals his amazing writing talents which have unfortunately been often neglected by the popular market. Selections include "The Half Of It, Dearie Blues," "Spring Again," "Treat Me Rough," "My Ship" and "Isn't It A Pity." Beautiful tribute to a great talent.

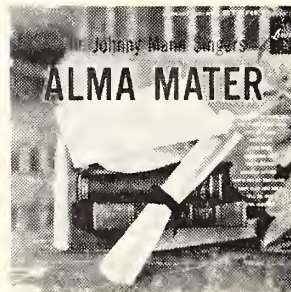

"SING ALONG WITH GLEE"—The Dartmouth Glee Club—United Artists UAL 3037 (Monaural & Stereo)

A "sing-along" album that will be of particular interest on campus. The famous Dartmouth Glee Club pays tribute to the Ivy League (side one) by singing two songs from each of the league's schools. "Lord Jeffrey Amherst" is also included here. On the second side the chorus sings songs of more general campus interest—"The Hanover Winter Song," "Morning Hymn" among others. Attractive specialty album.

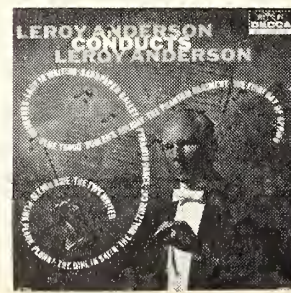

"GREATEST MOTION PICTURE PIANO CONCERTOS"—George Greeley, guest pianist with Warner Bros. Orchestra—Warner Bros. W 1319 & Stereo WS 1319

Memorable motion picture themes are set in piano concerto form here for George Greeley's clever pianistic interpretations. With a full ork behind him, Greeley gives technically brilliant performances of "Tara's Theme" from "Gone With The Wind," "The Song From Moulin Rouge," "An Affair To Remember" and seven others. Well produced album with wide appeal.

"ALMA MATER"—The Johnny Mann Singers—Liberty LST 7134 (Monaural & Stereo)

The Mann Singers, twenty-five strong male voices, render stirring readings of twelve College alma maters. Done with a minimum of musical accompaniment, as they would be in campus settings, the harmonic richness of the singers perform a service to such popular school songs as the Maine "Stein Song," "Eyes of Texas," "Cayuga's Waters," the "Whiffenpoof Song" and "Sweetheart of Sigma Chi." Can become a big campus item.

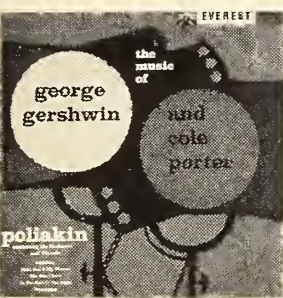

"LEROY ANDERSON CONDUCTS LEROY ANDERSON"—Decca DL 8865

Anderson's compositions, which comprise some of the outstanding pop instrumental hits of the past years, are "reviewed" here in concert conducted by the composer himself. Such delightful numbers as "Blue Tango," "Sleigh Ride," "The Typewriter," "Plink, Plank, Plunk" and "Bugler's Holiday," contained herein, will provide much enjoyable listening.

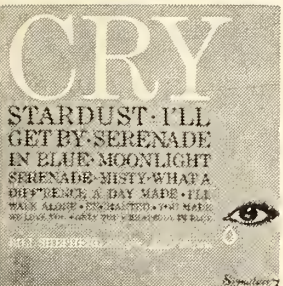

Album Reviews

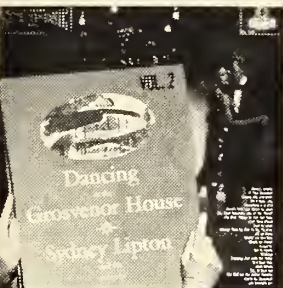

"THE MUSIC OF GEORGE GERSHWIN AND COLE PORTER"—Poliakoff conducting his Chorale and Orchestra—Everest LPBR 5051 & Stereo SDBR 1051

Completely romantic treatments of twelve outstanding compositions by Gershwin and Porter. Poliakoff utilizes a large ork, with accent on lushness, plus an 18 voice chorus on four tracks. Among the six Gershwin numbers are "But Not For Me" and "Someone To Watch Over Me," with Porter contributing "Night and Day" and "In The Still of the Night," among others. Enchanting mood album, enhanced by exquisite sound quality.

"CRY"—Bill Shepherd and the London Strings—Signature SM 1015

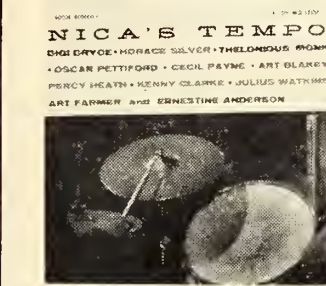

Shepherd leads the strings in updated rock-ballad versions of a dozen evergreens. With a heavy rhythm section behind it, the strings soar vibrantly over such melodies as "Misty," "What a Difference a Day Made," "I'll Walk Alone" and "Serenade in Blue" among others. In line with several recent hit singles, this style is suited to teen tastes. Deck should be well received.

"DANCING AT THE GROSVENOR HOUSE"—Sydney Lipton and his Orchestra—Volumes 2, 3 & 4—London PS 160, 161 & 162 (Monaural & Stereo)

Volumes 2, 3 & 4 in a series which presents the light, listenable dance music played by the Lipton ork, which holds forth regularly at London's fashionable Grosvenor House. Each set contains 24 popular melodies, most in the standard class, played continuously. Lipton's interpretation of the music is sweet and melodic allowing for pleasant listening as well as its primary function. Attractive disks.

JAZZ PICK OF THE WEEK

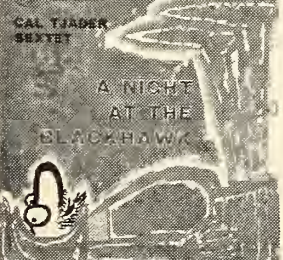

"NICA'S TEMPO"—The Orchestra and the Quartet of Gigi Gryce—Savoy MG 12137

An unusual assemblage of some of the top jazz names have been formed into Gryce's two groups, each of which occupies one side of this album. The Orchestra, (nine pieces) contains such outstanding talent as Horace Silver, Art Farmer, Jimmy Cleveland, Kenny Clarke with Ernestine Anderson contributing two vocals. The quartet is made up of Gryce (alto), Thelonious Monk, Percy Heath and Art Blakey, four great jazzmen. Selections include "Social Call," "Speculation" and "Gallop's Gallop". Wonderful issue.

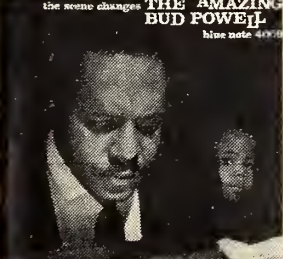

"GIL EVANS ORCHESTRA"—World Pacific WP 1270

Jazz standards such as "Davenport Blues," "Straight No Chaser," "Django" and "Joy Spring" have been given fascinating arrangements by Evans, using Budd Johnson, Jimmy Cleveland, Curtis Fuller, Johnny Coles and Steve Lacey, in major solo roles. The subtlety of Evans' writing is best demonstrated on "Django," yet he can prod a band to swing hard as on his own "Theme." Big band jazz par excellence.

"A NIGHT AT THE BLACKHAWK"—The Cal Tjader Sextet — Fantasy 3283 (Monaural & Stereo)

Recorded live at San Francisco's Blackhawk nitery, where the Tjader group usually hold forth, the album presents Tjader in a concert of his popular Latin-jazz music, extremely danceable yet thoroughly enjoyable as listening. The music swings with an uninhibited Latin rhythm, with Tjader's vibes providing delicate melodic contrasts. Selections include "A Night in Tunisia," "I Love Paris," "Blue and Sentimental" and three others.

"THE AMAZING BUD POWELL"—Blue Note 4009

This is volume 5 in Blue Note's series of Powell recordings. When he is "right," Powell demonstrates his validity as an outstanding jazz great, and much of the work here is done by a "right" Powell. With hot cooking rhythm by Paul Chambers and Art Taylor, Powell plays mainly in a bop vein. Selections include "Crossin' the Channel," "Comin' Up," "Cleopatra's Dream" and an unusual short piece, "Borderick." Interesting issue.

"LOVE FOR SALE"—Cecil Taylor Trio and Quintet—United Artists UAL 4046

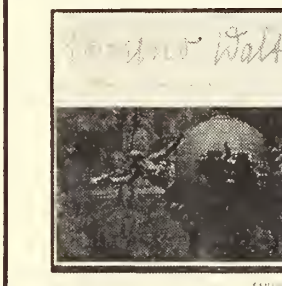

Among the best of the new jazz pianists, Taylor's playing is deeply absorbing and different from most of his contemporaries. On side one he uses a trio setup for his improvisations of three Cole Porter standards, "Get Out of Town," "I Love Paris" and "Love For Sale." Side two features the addition of trumpeter Ted Curzon and tenor saxist Bill Barron, for two Taylor originals. Taylor's writing, as well as his playing, is of intense interest.

"BLUES FOR HARVEY"—Jimmy Wisner Trio — Felsted FL 7509

Jimmy Wisner pays tribute to the late Harvey Huxton with eight self-penned jazz compositions. The trio, Wisner (piano), Chick Keeney (drums), Ace Tesone (bass), formerly the rhythm section in Charlie Ventura's band, can swing vigorously (i.e. "Crosstown," "They're Off and Running") or delve delicately into subtle nuances as demonstrated on "Sidney's Soliloquy," and "Ballad for Harvey". A cohesive unit with Wisner's piano providing the basic spark.

CLASSICAL PICK OF THE WEEK

BEETHOVEN: "Symphony No. 9," "Symphony No. 8"—Bruno Walter conducting the Columbia Symphony Orchestra, Westminster Symphonic Choir, Emilia Cudari, Nell Rankin, Albert Da Costa, William Wilderman—Columbia M2L 264 (Monaural & Stereo)

Beethoven's extravagant "Chorale" symphony receives another important performance under the able direction of Bruno Walter. The soloists are all outstanding, and the recording will become a standard shelf item. The eighth completes this two disk package, part of the recording of all of Beethoven's symphonies for the label by Walter.

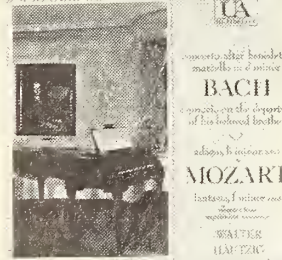

STRAVINSKY: "Firebird," "Agon"—New York City Ballet Orchestra, Robert Irving, conductor—Kapp KCL 9037 (Monaural & Stereo)

Stravinsky's "Firebird," a standard repertoire piece of almost every ballet company, and his more recent "Agon," are performed by the orchestra with its usual aplomb. Difficult works, these two compositions represent the modern composer's best works for the medium. Though "Firebird" has been recorded by the best, "Agon" is comparatively new to the catalog.

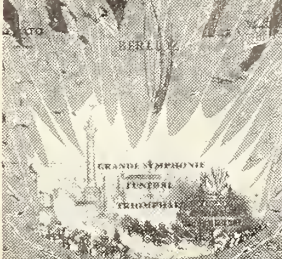

CHOPIN: "Ballades," "Andante Spianato & Grand Polonaise"—Gary Graffman, Pianist—RCA Victor LM 2304 & Stereo LSC 2304

Pianist Graffman displays a thorough knowledge of the composer in his interpretations of the five works herein—Ballades 1 to 4 and the exquisite concluding number, a tandem of two great works. The approach is intimate and understandably romantic. Should grace many piano collections.

BACH: "Concerto after Benedetto Marcello in D Minor," "Capriccio on the Departure of his Beloved Brother"; MOZART: "Fantasia in F Minor," "Adagio in B Minor"—Walter Hautzig, piano—United Artists UAL 7006 (Monaural & Stereo)

Pianist Hautzig displays the technical knowledge required to effectively interpret these works. His playing is thoughtful, and in the Capriccio, understanding of Bach's subtle humor.

BERLIOZ: "Grande Symphonie Funebre et Triomphale"—Chorale Populaire de Paris, Musique des Gardiens de la Paix de Paris, conducted by Desire Dondeyne—Westminster XWN 18865

This music, scored for symphonic band, is of a patriotic nature, designed to stir nationalistic feelings for the French revolution. Written for the 10th anniversary of the revolution, it is still a grand reminder of that time. The band and chorale accord the music their best, reading it with passion and strength. Special item that has not been recorded often.

ENGLAND

The sensation of the week has undoubtedly been caused by the Top Rank rumpus which has rocked the record industry. Cause of the rumpus is the resignation as General Manager of Rank Records Ltd. of Malcolm McGrady, the man most responsible for launching the Top Rank label and establishing it as a major record company throughout the world within a bare six months of its inception. McGrady's resignation followed immediately after the appointment from the Rank Organisation of Peter Davidson and Bernard Ness as Joint Managing Directors of a new "Record Division of the Rank Organisation." The work of this division would concern all the disk firms controlled by Rank in America and their International Co-operative.

Peter Davidson was originally McGrady's assistant and later became General Manager of Rank's Audio Plastics. Ness came to Top Rank early this year after being with E.W.I.'s International Record Department. The shock of McGrady's decision has an even greater impact following as close as it does the recent Top Rank Convention attended by representatives of record companies from all over the world. The credit for the success of this Convention was undoubtedly due, in no small measure, to the work of McGrady.

Top Rank's current success, Craig Douglas' "Only Sixteen" has now passed the 400,000 mark and it is not inconceivable that before long it will knock up half a million sales. All this since its release on July 17th. Arrangements are well ahead for a follow-up disk for Douglas.

On the social side the event of the week has been the 13th Annual Tin Pan Alley Ball which was held for the first time at London's Park Lane Hotel, the venue for the past ten years having been The Dorchester. The Ball is given by The Music Publishers Contact Personnel Association on behalf of the M.C.P.A. Benevolent Fund. This is an occasion where business rivalries give way to cordial greetings.

As usual record company executives, music publishers, recording stars, disk jockeys and others connected with the record industry turned up to give their support. The bands of Al Leslie and Sid Phillips played throughout the evening.

Record company representatives included Top Rank, E.M.I., Philips, Fontana, Decca, Oriole and Esquire. Among the music publishers present were Cyril Baker of Belinda London, Franklyn Boyd of Aberbach, Sid Coleman from Ardmore & Beechwood, Cyril Simons from Leeds, Teddie Holmes of Chappells and Tommy Hudson from Robbins Music.

Notable A & R men included Dick Rowe (Top Rank), Norman Newell (E.M.I.), Jack Baverstock (Fontana) and Norrie Paramor (Columbia). Among the stars was Tommy Steele, celebrating his new Australian contract, singing star Alma Cogan and Shirley Bassey, whose first recording for Columbia, "If You Love Me" backed with "Count On Me" is already climbing into the charts. The sheet music of "If You Love Me" is published by the Peter Maurice Music Company and "Count On Me" by Chappell & Co. Ltd. Newly engaged Millicent Martin and Ronnie Carroll, band leaders Frank Chacksfield, Billy Cotton and Mantovani, disk jockeys Pete Murray, Gerry Wilmott, Sam Costa and Jimmy Henney together with comedians Max Bygraves, Benny Hill, Bill Maynard and Tommy Cooper. Also present were Cyril Shack of Phonographic Equipment and Geoffrey Everitt of Radio Luxembourg.

Philips Records threw a party early this week to launch their "Porgy and Bess" L.P. from the sound track of the Samuel Goldwyn motion picture production, based on the magnificent Gershwin Opera, starring Dorothy Dandridge, Sammy Davis Jr. and Pearl Bailey. This L.P. was originally released in the States on the Columbia label to co-incide with the New York premier of the film last June.

The British release of this L.P. followed an all-out advertising campaign to launch, in the words of Leslie Gould, General Manager of Philips—"A great record which I feel sure will be the greatest record of 1959 and, who knows, 1960 too." Gould also stated that it was originally intended that the stereo version should come out sometime after the monaural. So great has been the demand that a simultaneous release has been arranged. The advertising campaign by Philips and, in fact, all the record companies who have "Porgy and Bess" disks, had been planned to co-incide with the British Premier of the film. However, at the last minute Columbia pictures decided to hold the release and at the moment it seems unlikely that this will take place before early next year. Gould plans to re-promote the record in conjunction with the premier whenever it may be. Jack Dyce, Philips representative from Baan in Holland was also at the party having spent several months promoting this record at various film festivals throughout the continent. The following are amongst the many "Porgy and Bess" recordings now available in this country.

Pye Golden Guina (Non Vocal), Harry Belafonte and Lena Horne on R.C.A., Sammy Davis Jr. on Brunswick, Diahann Carroll with Andre Previn on London, Ella Fitzgerald and Louis Armstrong on H.M.V. and Miles Davis Plays Porgy and Bess on Fontana. Together with an E.P. by Fontana with Frank Sinatra, Billie Holiday, Harry James and Anita Ellis. And an LP on the Gala Label.

Top rock 'n' roller Tommy Steele hit the headlines this week by signing £100,000 contract for a three-month Australian tour starting next February. Gordon C. Cooper, Managing Director of the Australian Tivoli Circuit, who flew to England to clinch the deal after a year's negotiations stated that this

Harry Belafonte had a 45-minute programme on B.B.C. TV. on Sunday last. His next programme is scheduled for Christmas Day. Belafonte said he was very happy to work for the B.B.C. as, and when, he was over in this country. Reports have it that he receives around £3,500 per appearance.

Jane Russell made her English T.V. debut on A.T.V. "Sunday Night at the London Palladium" on September 20th.

Carmen Dragon from the Hollywood Bowl Symphony Orchestra made his first European appearance conducting the B.B.C. Concert Orchestra at London's Festival Hall on September 20th. During his stay in this country he will pre-record a special programme to be transmitted by the B.B.C. during Christmas week. Also appeared as guest artist on B.B.C.'s Saturday night programme "Juke Box Jury," and is all lined up to feature "The L.P. Spot" in A.T.V.'s late night show "Disc Break."

Pianist Russ Conway, Columbia recording star, admitted to hospital for a minor operation, is progressing satisfactorily. His latest disk "China Tea" is currently high in the charts.

AUSTRALIA

The Melbourne "Truth", a weekly publication, ran a strong blast against "Battle Of Kookamonga" in its issue of 26th September. According to "Truth" this skit "has brought complaints from radio listeners all over Australia". The article continues, "Irate parents of teenagers will set the woods ablaze if they ever catch up with the publishers." "Truth" says, "One parent asked: 'When filth of this sort (referring to "The Battle Of Kookamonga") is publicly broadcast, is it any wonder that there is so much juvenile delinquency in the United States?'" The "Truth" article is headed Battle Song Battle, and is one of the most severe attacks ever launched against a record by a national publication.

Norman Spencer, Program Manager of GTV-9, Melbourne, leaves next Tuesday (29th September) for a quick holiday/business trip to the United States. Spencer is expected to sign several acts for TV appearances in Australia. He is reported as being prepared to make a healthy offer to Edd "Kookie" Byrnes.

tour as Presley did about his.

I goofed in this column in the 19th September issue of The Cash Box when it was stated that Col Joye's record of "Rockin' Rollin' Clementine" was the first time an Australian song had headed the 2UE Top 40. This is not correct. The extremely popular Columbia disk of "The Pub With No Beer" by Slim Dusty made the top spot and spent almost thirty weeks on the chart. E. M. I. report world sales in excess of 500,000 copies.

First Elvis Presley was to come to Australia now he is not coming. But now Britain's King of Rock, Tommy Steele is reported as coming to tour Australia next year for a fee of £100,000 sterling. This deal will make Steele the highest paid British artist ever to visit this country. The promoters hope that nothing happens to cause Steele to change his mind about the

The new series of "The Perry Como Show" will hit our television screens late in October. This sixty minutes is among the most highly rated in TV in Australia.

Pye Records debut this week with their first release consisting of several new hit singles. Harry Sutcliffe, Manager for Pye Records in Australia, says he has all the details tied up in connection with the launching of the new label.

Al Morgan, visiting American vocalist who leaves here tomorrow to return to the USA, made a rush one-day visit to Sydney disk jockeys last Sunday to promote his new single. Morgan has signed a contract to return to Australia next April for a lengthy season of TV, hotel and club engagements.

Leading international swimming star John Konrads will be seen in the role of a television host soon when he starts as compere of a new series of live shows featuring Australia's top recording talent. The boy looks good and could be heading for a long and successful career in TV.

Lee Gordon has already started his advertising campaign in connection with the forthcoming visit of Fabian, although the young star will not arrive here until late October.

The first E. M. I. release on their Columbia label by Johnny Devlin, New Zealand rock 'n' roll artist now in Sydney, appeared this week, "Pointed Toe Shoes" and "I Was The One". On this disk Devlin is supported by his own group The Devils and the Sydney vocal unit The Delltones. The session was supervised by Ron Wills, artist and repertoire manager for the E. M. I. group of labels in Australia. This record is already starting to show out in sales.

Leading Australian lightweight boxer and W & G recording star George Bracken steps into the ring tonight (25th September) to do battle for the coveted Australian lightweight boxing title. His opponent is David Oved. In addition to his boxing and recording activities, Bracken is also doing a fair amount of television entertainment.

Lots of talk throughout the trade about the Rank International set-up. So far no official announcement has been made concerning an Australian outlet for the Rank catalogue.

The most important event in Milan took place in September. The 25th National Exhibition of Radio Television and Records. It started on the 12th of September and lasted, as usual, for ten days. Approximate number of visitors this year, 200,000. Approximate number of visitors in 1958, 150,000. It shows the growing interest of the public. Not only the Italian public, but a good number of the visitors from various other countries. The gramophone firms seize this occasion to exhibit their goods and show the progress made in this area. In alphabetical order, here are some of the record firms who participated. Astraphon, Carisch, Decca, Durium, Fonit, La Voce del Padrone, Messaggerie Musicali, Philips, Vis Radio. At the Messaggerie Musicali's stand the first time that they exhibited, they are very happy with the results obtained, having had 40 to 50 business requests every day, with sellers coming from every part of the country.

I interviewed the directors of Durium, Mr. and Mrs. Mintangian. They drew my attention to the growth of sales of records of foreign production, and especially American production. In 1957 of ten records sold, one record was of foreign production. In 1959 of ten records sold, five are of foreign production. Seen below are the Italian record company booths at the National Exhibition of Radio, Television and Records.

BILLY VAUGHN

"Only those records best suited for commercial use are reviewed by THE CASH BOX"

GERMANY

As the producers of nearly all the German record firms told this correspondent, the sale of teenager records has gone back to 40%. There is a new young rock 'n roll singer, Ted Herold coming up. He is today considered the most dangerous rival of the German current king of rock 'n roll, Peter Kraus. Ted has already been very successful with his "Hey Baby" (on Polydor). This rock is the German version of Elvis Presley's "A Big Hunk Of Love" and it is already on the September list of bestsellers.

Radio Luxemburg will manage the "Deutsche Schlager Festival 1959," in the middle of November. The chanson does not succeed in Germany. A view of the German record situation shows: chanson and popular music is like 1 to 500.

Freddy Quinn, who became a record millionaire with his song, "Die Gitarre und das Meer," will now get the fourth "Goldene Schallplatte." Some weeks ago Freddy returned from Canada, where he made a film.

The song "Morgen," created by the Yugoslave Ivo Robic, on Polydor is selling tremendously. The Americans have already bought 300,000 records. On October 3rd, the friends of Ivo can see him first on television for the first time on the Perry Como show.

Bandleader Max Gregor brought a song from his Russia-Tournee to Germany. In Russia it is a very beloved tune. The song, "Moskauer Nichte" was an immediate success in Germany on Polydor.

The market this year looks very good. In Frankfurt/Main it was said that in the last year (1958) that 52.5 million records were sold (including import records) in the Bundesrepublik. In 1953 it was only 15.5 million and 1957, 48.5 million.

The Modern Jazz Quartette will come to Germany October 17th to November 6th. The Quartette consists of Milt Jackson, vibraphone, John Lewis, piano, Percy Heath, bass and Kenny Clarke, drum.

The youngest German record singers are Gabriele (11 years), Rosemarie (10 years). Rosemarie succeeded with her song, "Ich Mocht' Schon 16 Jahre Sein," and Gabriele, who had her first success with "Hirtenblues" is singing now with Louis Armstrong on Polydor "Onkle Satchmos Lullaby." This song has come onto the German bestseller list, with surprising speed.

Young Cindy Ellis has become a record star in Germany in a very short time. She was born in London, but has lived in Germany since she was two years old. Her first song was "Fieber" and now she has had success with "Das Ziel Meiner Wunsche" and "Nicht ein einziges Mal," both songs on Polydor.

Wie mir die Produzenten fast aller deutschen Schallplattenfirmen mitteilten, ist der Verkauf von Teenager-Platten in den letzten Monaten um 40% zurückgegangen. Jdoch ist ein neuer junger Rock'n Roll-Sänger groß im Kommen: Ted Herold, der zur Zeit, bereits große Konkurrenz für den Teenager-König Peter Kraus ist. Ted hat großen Erfolg mit seiner auf Polydor gesungenen Platte "Hey Baby". Dieser schnelle Rock ist die deutsche Version des Elvis Presley-Erfolges "A Big Hunk O'Love" und steht in diesem Monat bereits auf der Bestseller-Liste.

Der Sender Luxemburg veranstaltet Mitte November das "Deutsche Schlager-Festival" 1959.

Das Chanson Kommt in Deutschland nicht an. Ein Blick in die deutschen Schallplatten-Kataloge beweist: Das Chanson steht zum Schlager wie 1:500.

Freddy Quinn, der mit seinem Lied "Die Gitarre und das Meer" deutscher Schallplatten-Millionär wurde, steuert jetzt mit diesem Song auf die vierte "Goldene Schallplatte" zu. Vor wenigen Wochen kehrte Freddy von Filmaufnahmen in Kanada zurück.

* * * * *

Der Absatz des "Morgen"-Liedes, das der Jugoslawe Ivo Robic auf Polydor singt, ist immer noch im Ansteigen. Die Amerikaner kauften bisher ca. 300 000 Platten. Am 3. Oktober wird sich Ivo im Fernsehen seinen Freunden in der Perry Como-Schau vorstellen.

Bandleader Max Gregor hat von seiner RuBland-Tournee den dort zur Zeit beliebtesten Schlager "Moskauer Nächte" mit nach Deutschland gebracht. Seine inzwischen auf Polydor erschienene Aufnahme hat auch in Deutschland bereits gute Anfangserfolge.

Die Marktchance der deutschen Schallplatten-Industrie liegt in diesem Jahr sehr günstig. Wie auf der Phono-Messe in Frankfurt/Main bekannt wurde, hat sich der Umsatz auf hohem Niveau stabilisiert. Im vergangenen Jahr (1958) wurden 52,5 Millionen Platten (einschließlich Importplatten) in der Bundesrepublik abgesetzt (gegenüber 15,5 Millionen im Jahre 1953 und 48,5 Mill. 1957).

Der Mehrpreis für Stereo-Platten ist kaum noch spürbar. Zur Zeit kosten sie in der Regel 26, 21, 19, 8,50 und 5 DM, d.h., dass der Mehrpreis bei populären Aufnahmen rund 2 DM, bei klassischen Aufnahmen 2 bis 3 DM beträgt. Die Preissenkungen betragen zum Teil mehr als 10 DM je Platte.

Das Modern Jazz Quartett wird vom 17. Oktober bis 6. November eine Gastspielreise durch Deutschland unternehmen. Die Besetzung ist: Milt Jackson (vibraphon), John Lewis (piano), Percy Heath (BaB), und Kenny Clarke (Schlagzeug).

Die jüngsten deutschen Plattenstars heißen Garibele (11 Jahre) und Rosemarie (10 Jahre). Beide Mädchen stehen bei Polydor unter Vertrag. Gabriele, die ihren ersten großen Erfolg mit "Hirtenblues" hatte, singt jetzt ein Duett mit Luis Armstrong: "Onkel Satchmos Lullaby". Dieser Schlager ist überraschend schnell in die deutsche Bestseller-Liste aufgerückt.

Eine junge Sängerin ist in kurzer Zeit in Deutschland zum Platte-Star geworden. Es ist die in London geborene, jedoch seit ihrem zweiten Lebensjahr in Deutschland lebende Cindy Ellis. Mit ihrer deutschen "Fieber"-Version kam sie ganz groß heraus. Jetzt singt sie, ebenfalls mit großem Erfolg, mit ihrer sehr erotischen Stimme die beiden Lieder "Das Ziel meiner Wünsche" und "Nicht ein einziges Mal" (Polydor).

BENELUX

This month several Dutch gramophone companies have published their programs for the winter 1959-1960. Limited Company Phonogram, Amsterdam (with labels Philips, American Columbia, English Decca, Fontana, London and Durium) organized at Hilversum a great dealer day, where all dealers of the country were present.

Limited Company Bovema, Heemstede (with labels His Master's Voice, Capitol, English Columbia, Imperial, Electrola and Roulette) made a trip through the most important towns so the dealers could get acquainted with the new winter program of this company.

Last week Duke Ellington visited Holland for four concerts. One in the Kurzaal at Scheveningen, one in the Concertgebouw at Amsterdam and two concerts in Philips' Jubilee Hall at Eindhoven.

On the occasion of the coming of "The Duke," Philips has released the third LP-album from the series "The Duke Ellington Story."

The record-label M.G.M., for years imported by L.C. Nederlandse Gramofon-Mij, The Hague, has gone to Limited Company Bovema, Heemstede.

The Perry Como Show returns to our screens within a few weeks by A.V.R.O. Broadcasting Company.

Since last week Holland became acquainted for the first time with the Nat "King" Cole Show.

Effective September Artone Gramphone L.C. has the representation for the French label Bell-Air and the Belgium label Ronnex.

Q.J. van Tricht L.C., Hilversum, let us know that a new series of 12-inch LP's is to come out on the label Chala at a price of f9.25 ($2.50), unique for Holland because the price of the cheapest 12-inch record amounts f16.00 ($4).

Effective September 24 this company has the representation for the label Teddy, the gramovisie children-record.

The L.C. Intrecord, Amsterdam has the sole agency for the labels Darick Records and Makolit.

The song "Marina" is beginning to become a nation wide hit, especially the interpretation by Rocco Granata.

In the BENELUX countries six interpretations of this number are available, which is tremendous for these countries.

LEWIS RECORD MFG. CO.

NEW YORK—The principals in the new RCA Victor album, "Hello, World!," gather for a picture during its recording. Standing are William Mayer and Susan Otto, composers of the dramatic musical work for children. Seated are Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt, who narrates the work, and Flip Marks and Gloria Rosenthal, who are also heard on the disk.

"Hello, World!," scored for full symphony orchestra, features Mrs. Roosevelt in the role of guide on a musical trip around the world, introducing children of many countries and pronouncing the word hello in the language of each country. According to the composers, "Hello" is one of the easiest ways of expressing friendship, and to be able to say it in many languages is to be able to express a bit of friendship toward people around the world.

Thomas Sherman conducts the Little Orchestra Society on the album.

Mrs. Roosevelt disclosed that an advance copy of the album has already been sent as a special gift to Premier and Madame Khrushchev and their grandchildren.

The Book of the Month Club will feature the album in its Nov. and Dec. selections. Point of sale display and extensive promotion are being set on the retail level.

Award To Gould

NEW YORK—RCA Victor recording artist Morton Gould will receive the annual award for "Outstanding Contribution to Music" at the opening of this year's High Fidelity Music Show on October 6, 1959 at the New York Trade Show Building. The award will be made by Joseph N. Benjamin, president of the Institute of High Fidelity Manufacturers.

Gould, who is one of America's outstanding composer-conductor-arrangers, has pioneered in the techniques of stereo recording. His RCA Victor LP "Baton and Bows" was reportedly the first album ever released in which the orchestrations were specially arranged for stereo.

At home in pop and classical music, Gould has composed the scores for two musical comedies, "Billion Dollar Baby" and "Arms And The Girl." His recently-composed "St. Lawrence Suite" was played at the opening of the Seaway under the direction of the composer.

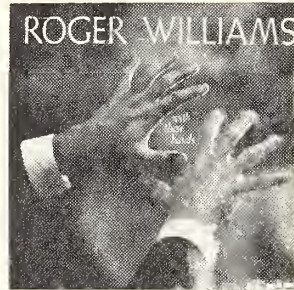

Gould's latest RCA Victor releases include "Doubling in Brass" and "The Tchaikovsky 1812 Overture." The "1812," released just a few weeks ago, is one of the fastest-selling classical records in the country today.

As the winner of this year's Institute of High Fidelity Manufacturers award, Gould joins such previous recipients as Rise Stevens and Leopold Stokowski.

Coed Announces Expansion

NEW YORK—Coed Records heads into the Fall season with an expansion move which includes additions to its talent roster, two new fieldmen and the announcement of an initial LP release.

The diskery has pacted songster Billy Donahue and the Ivy's, each out with a single release this week. Donahue offers "Dream Of Me" and "Oo Darlin'," while the Ivy's have "All I Want" and "Lost Without You."

The new fieldmen are Julie Losch, the west coast, and Lenny Gaines, east coast. This gives Coed four fieldmen who will periodically and "systematically" alternate between all major sales areas. The men will work directly alongside Coed vice-prexy Marvin Kane with the distributors in these areas and a meeting will take place once a month in New York to discuss the musical tastes and interest shown by the local record buyers in these areas.

The label's first LP's will come from the jazz field. Three such LP's are now being recorded for late Fall release, along with a new EP by the Crests, presently hitting with "The Angels Listened In."

President of Coed is George Paxton, also owner of Winneton Music, George Paxton, Inc. and Whiting Music plus Capax Management Corporation. The latter represents such talents as the Rivas, Billy Dawn, Andy Ackers and now Billy Donahue and the Ivy's. Under contract to Paxton are writers Bob Haymes, Billy Dawn Smith, Bert Keyes, Ollie Jones and Alicia Evelyn.

Paxton foresees a new trend in pop music in the near future. Paxton feels the new idiom will still continue with the rock 'n roll beat as a basic fundamental, but the singers and records will not have the "rough sound so apparent in many of today's hits."

"In short, the recordings should be a cross between the Swing Era of the 30's and the Rock And Roll Era of the 50's. To coin a phrase, this could be called 'The Solid Sound Era'."

Roy Acuff Telefilm

NASHVILLE, TENN.—"Roy Acuff's Open House," a new syndicated telefilm series, will go on the market soon, according to W. D. Kilpatrick, manager of Acuff-Rose Artists, the Nashville firm handling sales and distribution.

Filmed early this year, the package consists of 39 shows—each featuring music and comedy performed by every member of the Roy Acuff Show, the big Acuff touring attraction throughout the U.S., Canada, Australia and Europe. Also featured are such Grand Ole Opry favorites as the Wilburn Bros., June Webb, the Open House Square Dancers and a cast of 30 performers.

To the regional buyer, the package offers an opportunity for a complete merchandising package consisting of tie-ins with Acuff's personal appearances, "custom-tailored" commercials prepared by Acuff and the use of records by Acuff, the Wilburns and Miss Webb as promotional pieces.

The series is a presentation of Milroy Productions, this city. Sales reps are John T. Link, who will headquarter at the Acuff-Rose firm, here, and Ben Berry, Chicago.

Seeco Signs King

NEW YORK—Comedian Alan King (right) is signed to a Seeco recording contract by Seeco president Sidney Siegel (left) while Mort Hillman, newly appointed general manager in charge of sales and A&R for Seeco, looks on.

King's first recording project for the label will be an LP of comedy material culled partly from his nightclub act and from special material now being prepared for him. Hillman will supervise the session.

Mercury Launches Consumer Ad Campaign

CHICAGO—Mercury Records quarter-million dollar consumer corporate advertising campaign kicks off this week with a full-page-plus-one-column color spread in the October 5 issue of Time Magazine. The $250,000 appropriation will be spread over a period of four and a half months, said Kenny Myers, Mercury director of advertising.

Disclosing that the central theme of the program will be an educational one, Myers stated: "In the recording industry, we have thus far been absorbed in promoting personalities and song-titles rather than in impressing the public with the superb engineering and technical fineness of today's record manufacture. The motion picture industry has learned that an audience given interesting information on the creative skill, effort and expense necessary to produce pictures, is an audience ready to respect the whole business of film-making as an art. Record making, too, is a creative art, and we're confident that the consumer can be educated to respect it as such."

"The consumer today buys sound," Myers continued, "and the album-buyer especially is surprisingly discriminate. We believe that the outstanding feature of Mercury product is the high quality of our sound reproduction. Ad-copy and pictures will, therefore, be concerned with the time and care necessary to turn out a superior product. A subsidiary theme will call attention to prestige artists on our label."

Mort Small, label ad manager, revealed further details: The classical best-seller, Tchaikovsky's "1812 Overture," has been chosen as the first ad-subject. As conducted by Antal Dorati for the label's "Living Presence" classical series, this symphonic showpiece features the bronze cannon of U.S. Military Academy at West Point, and bells of the Laura Spelman Rockefeller Memorial Carillion at Riverside Church. Full-page layouts used in the campaign will be utilized to explaining techniques used in this, and other recordings. Only the adjacent one-column space will carry any hard-sell copy for specific merchandise.

Artists selected for prestige spotting include Patti Page and David Carroll, Small said. Media employed will include, in addition to Time, The New Yorker, Esquire, Playboy and Gentlemen's Quarterly. John W. Shaw Advertising, Chicago, is the agency.

AF Engineer Reports On New Stereo Technique

NEW YORK—John Mosely, chief engineer of Audio Fidelity Records, will deliver a paper entitled "Eliminating the Stereo Seat" before the Audio Engineering Society 11th Annual Convention at the Hotel New Yorker this week, Oct. 6.

The new stereo recording technique described and illustrated with a specially prepared film, is called MS. This method, about which American engineers reportedly know relatively little to date, allows a perfect sound picture without any "hole in the middle", and eliminates the need for the so-called stereo seat.

Mosely, born in London in 1933, studied electrical engineering in England and worked with radar and radio equipment. His experience in the recording industry was gained in both the U.S. and Europe where for two years, he was chief engineer of Pye Records, Ltd. While at Pye, his main concern was the design of studio and laboratory development of stereo-phonetic records.

At the AES Convention, Audio Fidelity Professional Products will exhibit in Booth 21 at the New Yorker. New Telefunken studio equipment and new microphones will be displayed as well as the M 10, the new stereo tape recorder, and the Telefunken racks containing plug-in amplifier equipment. Mosely, Norman, Golding, and Larry Frey will be at the exhibition to answer questions from Noon until 6:45 P.M., daily, October 5-10.

Opening Gun

CHICAGO—A "Bang" is what the Fall season's starting off with, as far as the Modernaires are concerned. The quintet has a newly inked contract with Art Talmadge, A&R director of Mercury Records, with six sides already cut and on their way to the pressing plant. They are also set for a featured spot on the new George Gobel TVer, kicking off October 11 on the CBS network.

Lucky Starr

TRENTON, N.J.—Lonny Starr, WNEW-New York disk jockey, is surrounded by four beauties at the New Jersey State Fair, where he officiated as judge in the crowning of "Miss New Jersey State Fair." With Starr are (l. to r.) Geraldine Binder (1958 Queen), Isabel Orr (newly crowned Queen) and runnerups Gayle Wilde and Jacqueline Lane.

Nichols And Kingston Trio On "Bell Telephone Hour"

HOLLYWOOD—The Kingston Trio and Red Nichols and His Five Pennies will be featured on the first telecast this week (9) of the "Bell Telephone Hour." Both The Kingston Trio and Nichols are exclusive Capitol recording artists.

For Nichols, appearance on the "Telephone Hour" is the latest achievement in a year that has been one of the biggest of his career. The current film, "The Five Pennies," is based on the veteran cornetist's colorful life.

In contrast to Nichols, who for more than two decades has been among the top names in jazz, the "Telephone Hour" also spotlights The Kingston Trio, a group that was virtually unknown only two years ago. Recently featured on the cover of Life as one of the hottest attractions in show business, The Kingstons shot to fame a year ago with their "infamous" recording, "Tom Dooley."

"The Bell Telephone Hour," which also stars Alfred Drake, Sally Ann Howes, violinist Zino Francescatti, the Ballet Russe de Monte Carlo, and Connee Boswell, will be seen over the NBC Television Network.

Two Hi-Fi Shows Set For California

SAN FRANCISCO—Two high fidelity shows in California will be sponsored this winter by the Magnetic Recording Industry Association, it was announced last week by Herbert L. Brown, president of the industry group.

Brown is vice president of Ampex Corporation and head of the Sunnyvale subsidiary producing hi-fi equipment for the home.

The Los Angeles show will be held January 13-17 in the Pan-Pacific Auditorium and the San Francisco show January 23-26 in the Cow Palace. The shows will be known as The National High Fidelity Shows to indicate wide industry participation.

Executive director of the two all-industry shows will be James Logan, veteran show promoter, who previously has staged high fidelity shows as well as Home Shows in San Francisco.

"Although this will be the first time the association has undertaken such a project, it will be on the basis of the broadest industry participation possible," Brown said. "The invitation to participate is going out to all manufacturers, not restricted to just a few from some particular field within the industry."

"The decision to sponsor these two shows is an expression by many within the industry of the desire to maintain the excellent and demanding standards that have been introduced at previous San Francisco shows by Mr. Logan and his staff. The reception to last year's Cow Palace Show was outstanding. It is this sort of enthusiasm by the public that we wish to continue to generate both here and in Los Angeles."

"California is a major market for hi-fi equipment and we in the industry consider it essential that every effort be made to present the San Francisco and Los Angeles shows under optimum conditions. This we can do at the Cow Palace and at the Pan-Pacific Auditorium. In both places we will have ample room for uncrowded and uncongested displays. We will also have almost limitless parking."

Lieberson Reorganizes Columbia's Masterworks Department

NEW YORK—A reorganization of Columbia Records' Masterworks Department has been announced by Goddard Lieberson, President of the company.

"Adapting to our classical Department the same new principle of operations recently instituted in our Popular Department, I have separated musical recording functions from executive and administrative functions. I want our inventive record producers to spend full time and energy in musical activity. This can best be done by removing from A & R producers their sometimes-burdensome executive and administrative responsibilities."

"Executive functions of the Masterworks Department henceforth will be the concern of an Executive Coordinator, who will correlate all artist relations, recordings and administrative activities."

"I am happy to announce the appointment of Schuyler G. Chapin to this new post. Mr. Chapin has, for the past six years, been active in many phases of concert management and is well acquainted with the general field of music as well as with recording activities. He served as traveling representative, midwest Sales Representative and most recently, as Associate in Management to the Judson, O'Neill and Judd Division, managing some thirty leading artists and group attractions. Mr. Chapin has also been active in broadcasting, as editor, correspondent, promotion and publicity director and national salesman for various divisions of the National Broadcasting Company. He attended Harvard College and the Longy School of Music.

"He joins John McClure, who, as Executive Musical Director, will continue to supervise recording activities. Mr. McClure has been associated with Columbia Records since 1952, first as a recording engineer, later as musical director of many important Masterworks recording operations. Among Mr. McClure's most important assignments has been the complete supervision of Bruno Walter's new stereophonic recordings of the Beethoven symphony cycle.

"Also functioning as a producer in the Masterworks Department will be Howard Scott, a long-time member of its staff.

"The members of the Masterworks Department will function in Columbia's company-wide Artists and Repertoire Staff, reporting directly to me.

"This new division of responsibilities, we believe, will permit new growth and greater effectiveness for the Masterworks Department."

20th Century Strings Album Series

NEW YORK — 20th-FOX Records has announced a continuing album series by The 20th Century Strings.

The first two volumes by this orchestra are titled "Premiere Performance" and "Masterpieces" and will be released this month.

Henry Onorati, president of 20th-FOX Records, stated in an announcement to the trade and to licensees throughout the world, "The 20th Century Strings brings together musicians whose backgrounds cannot be surpassed. Many have played under Arturo Toscanini and Leonard Bernstein, with the New York Philharmonic and the Philadelphia Orchestra as well as for Andre Kostelanetz and Morton Gould and, in the cases of the men who add the excitement of a few jazz touches to the strings, in the bands of Benny Goodman, Tommy Dorsey, Woody Herman, Earl Hines, Lionel Hampton and other great names. The 20th Century Strings is an overwhelmingly all-star orchestra made up of the finest musicians in all facets of the musical scene."

The orchestra will be heard on the 20th-FOX label under the batons of several different conductors, both European and American.

In this album series, which will be a basic part of the 20th-FOX record catalog, the company has set the highest production standards. The repertoire will then be sequenced and the arrangements planned so as to build production values into the entire album through the varied orchestral color conceived by the arranger. Thus the arrangements will be conceived both as individual musical segments and as an integral part of the entire production. This, the diskery feels, will make possible the attainment of high sonic values and a new high standard of brilliance in the art of orchestration.

Sound standards for The 20th Century Strings recordings were set by 20th's studio engineers. All recordings by The 20th Century Strings will be made on three channel stereo tapes. The soundstage on the 20th Century-Fox lot in Hollywood will be used for West Coast recordings.

For the task of conducting and arranging the first volume of this series of recordings, 20th-FOX has selected composer-arranger, Hugo Montenegro. In Volume 1 ("Premiere Performance") Montenegro conducts The 20th Century Strings in his arrangements of the standards of the popular repertory.

There are more than strings in this debut album. Along with the large bank of violinists, violists and cellists, which make the sound of strings the predominant element, there is a french horn section, trombones and woodwinds and a "swinging" rhythm section.

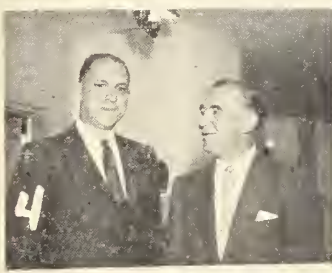

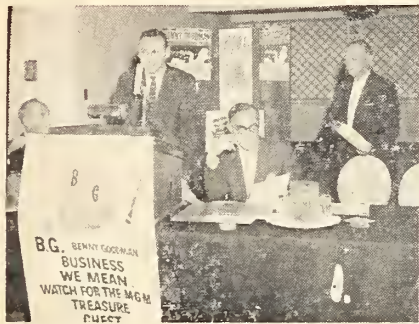

Onorati has assigned Montenegro to arrange and conduct The 20th Century Strings in twelve albums wherein the world's greatest popular standards will be presented.

In Volume 2 by The 20th Century Strings, also to be released this month, 20th has selected another American composer-conductor, Nicholas Flagello, in some of the eternal favorites among the classics.

"The Girls Against The Boys" To Capitol

HOLLYWOOD — Capitol Records has signed up its second original cast Broadway show album in as many weeks, announcing last week the acquisition of the OC recording rights for the upcoming revue, "The Girls Against The Boys." Announcement was made by Capitol A&R vice-president Lloyd M. Dunn, who two weeks ago disclosed that the diskery had won similar rights for the new Broadway musical, "Fiorello."

"The Girls Against The Boys" opens in New York on October 28 at the Alvin Theatre. Lyrics and sketches are by Arnold Horwitt who did the lyrics for "Plain And Fancy" (cut by Capitol) and music is by Richard Levine, a vice-prexy of Columbia Broadcasting, with additional songs by Albert Hague, who wrote the music for "Plain And Fancy" and the current smash, "Redhead." Producer of the revue is Albert Selden, a partner in Talent Associates, and director is Aaron Ruben.

Hy Siegel Dies In Plane Crash

NEW YORK—Hy Siegel, sales manager of Savoy and Regent Records, Newark, N.J., was killed last week (29) as a result of the Texas plane crash that also took 33 other lives. He was 51.

NEW YORK — Don Costa's first record as A&R Director of United Artists Records was released last week. The new single introduces Bobby & Billy, a singing duo, in their first recording, "Georgia Beatnik" backed with "Sorrow". Both tunes were written especially for the singers.

Bobby & Billy, who are just out of their teens, are Costa's personal discoveries. Native New Yorkers they have been singing together for some time as non-professionals in Washington Square singing circles in New York's Greenwich Village.

Costa was recently appointed to the top A&R post by United Artists Records after several years at ABC-Paramount.

Wess Arrangements Bring Trade Lauds

NEW YORK—That swingin' sound that backs Bobby Darin on "Mack The Knife" is a product of arranger-conductor Richard Wess, a man reportedly in demand by a number of diskeries. Wess expects to sign very shortly with a major label.

Wess has already completed work on the soon-to-be-released Darin LP on Atco. He also just completed a new Chris Connor package on Atlantic, and provided the setting for another Atlantic LP, "A Late Date With Ruth Brown."

Wess has been arranging for several years and, in addition to the aforementioned talents, has worked with Lillian Roth, Denise Lor, Georgia Gibbs, Dick Haymes, Jodie Sands and many others.

New Nat "King" Cole EP

HOLLYWOOD — Capitol Records has issued a Nat Cole EP tagged after his current click, "Midnight Flyer." In addition to the title track, package includes "Just As Much As Ever," "Sweet Bird Of Youth," and "Coo-Coo-Roo-Coo-Coo, Paloma."

Roulette Offers 15% Oct. Discount

NEW YORK—Joe Kolsky, executive vice-president of Roulette Records, announced last week that the label's October sales program offers all qualifying dealers a 15% discount on their album purchases.

Tabbed "Formula 15", the 15% discount includes not only the dealers purchases of all the new albums for October, but encompasses their purchases of any albums in the Roulette catalog and its divisions, Roost and Tico as well. The plan excludes only Roulette's new classical division Forum Records which made its debut release in August and is a low priced, $1.98 monaural, $2.98 stereo line.

"Formula 15" will work directly through the Roulette distributors who will discount the 15% off the qualified dealers invoice. Qualified dealers are, of course, determined by the distributor.

Kolsky stated that "Formula 15" has already gotten under way with the distributors who have been holding sales meetings with their personnel to brief them on the program and introduce the new albums for October. They have also prepared their own direct mailing pieces announcing the plan to all their accounts. Members of the Roulette Dealers Record Club have already received their one copy of each album in the October release at the reduced price in accordance with the club's provisions.

The Roulette albums for October will include: "Basie/Eckstine, Inc.," which brings together Billy Eckstine and the Count Basie Orchestra for the first time; "Broadway Show Stoppers", the Playmates in a collection of show-stopping comedy songs from hit B'way musicals such as "There Is Nothing Like A Dame" from South Pacific, "Get Me To The Church On Time" from My Fair Lady, and "Jubilation T. Cornpone", from Lil' Abner; "Joe Williams Sings About You", featuring Williams doing romantic ballads with lush string accompaniment, such as, "You Are Too Beautiful", "With Every Breath I Take", and "I Only Have Eyes For You"; "A Message From Birdland", Maynard Ferguson orch., an on-the-spot live recording made during Ferguson's recent appearance at the jazz club; "Go Ahead And Rock", Buddy Johnson orch. with his sister Ella Johnson, a collection of rhythm and blues favorites; "The Folk Songs Of Sonny Terry And Brownie McGhee", the folk singing team performing folk blues; "Shepherd And His Flock Swing", featuring English musical arranger Bill Shepherd; "Piano Portraits" by Phineas Newborn, the jazz pianist's first LP for the label; "Dixieland At The Roundtable", Salt City Six, another live, on-the-spot recording from the Roundtable. There will be one Tico album in the release, "Irving Berlin In Latin America", Machito & His Orchestra; the first LP in a "composer series" which will highlight the songs of famous composers presented with a Latin-American dance beat.

"Formula 15" for October will receive full promotional and advertising support. Roulette has sent out special order pads for the month, a new consumer catalog for dealers counters will be available shortly, a large cardboard counter display highlighting six of the key albums in the release, plus individual four color wrap-around mounted easels on each album has been sent out. A special, 18" by 26" poster on "Basie/Eckstine, Inc.", is also available. Full disk-jockey coverage on the albums has been made and a special October preview album with excerpts from each LP in the October release is already in disk-jockey hands. Heavy trade and consumer advertising on the October release is also set.

Kolsky stated that the Roulette program for August was so successful it was extended until September 25. This enabled the dealers, as he put it, to absorb and do a selling job on the August merchandise before flooding them with new merchandise in the beginning of September. He concluded; "Formula 15" is an all-encompassing program because we have not skimmed the cream off our catalog as some discount programs do. The 15% off is for all our available merchandise. The program also enables the dealer to buy the LP's he knows he can move instead of burdening him with merchandise he must buy and is not sure of selling. From the reaction of our distributors and their initial orders, we expect to do an even bigger job in October than we did in August."

Bourne Pubbery Hot Now

NEW YORK—The Bourne and ABC Music catalog has never been so active in both singles and albums, according to an announcement last week by general professional manager Lester Sims.

Recent important versions of Bourne tunes have been Tony Bennett's "Smile" and Louis Prima-Keely Smith's and Terri Deane's readings of "I'm Confessin'." A hot newcomer is Dinah Washington's "Unforgettable."

Keely Smith was out last week with "I'd Climb The Highest Mountain," her first solo for Dot and Sims revealed that Coral and Hanover-Signature are releasing four new Bourne songs this week.

HOLLYWOOD—Arwin Records, the diskery owned by Doris Day and hubby Marty Melcher, is going on an all-out promo push for Miss Day's Columbia waxing of "Pillow Talk" and "Possess Me," tunes she warbles in her new flick, "Pillow Talk."

Arwin has added seven national district reps to contact deejays, music stores and radio outlets throughout the country. They will report directly to Arwin Music veep Peter K. Duchow.

New Verbit Survey

PHILADELPHIA, PA. — Nelson Verbit, president of Marnel Distributing, this city and Baltimore, stated last week that the current stress by stereo set manufacturers on players selling for $400 or more will hurt stereophonic record sales as well as set sales in the big Christmas buying season.

Distributor Verbit made his prediction as a result of the third, monthly mail and in-person survey conducted by his sales staff among retailers in the Baltimore and Philadelphia area.

Verbit stated that 80% of the retailers he surveyed contend that less than five per cent of the potential customers they have spoken to can afford to spend more than $200 for a set.

"As a result of our current survey," Verbit states, "we are advising all the retailers we service with records to feature only stereophonic players starting at the very bottom prices and going no higher than $200. If they want to have a few expensive sets around for the 'carriage trade', that can't do any harm."

Ina Friedman Tops Record Assoc.

WESTPORT, CONN. — Harold Friedman, president of the record consultation service bearing his name, announced last week that his wife, Ina Friedman has been named to head his subsidiary firm, Record Associates, which acts as a pressing, sales, distribution and financing agency for record companies.

Mrs. Friedman, who has been actively operating Record Associates for the past six months, had been associated with Seeco, Golden Crest, London, United Artists and E. A. Records prior to joining her husband in Record Associates.

Harold Friedman stated: "The woman's angle has been growing in importance with the increasing amount of disk sales in supermarket and variety chains, drug stores, and other retail outlets. This new aspect of the business has given Ina a double value to the disk firms who have joined Record Associates."

R & B Reviews

A AWARD B+ EXCELLENT B VERY GOOD C+ GOOD C FAIR D MEDIOCRE

"Only those records best suited for commercial use are reviewed by THE CASH BOX"

The Cash Box Award o' the Week

"YOCKY DOCK" (Part 2) [Islip BMI—Doggett]

"YOCKY DOCK" (Part 1) [Islip BMI—Doggett]

BILL DOGGETT (King 5256)

● Doggett's latest effort continues his pace setting instrumental sounds and should maintain his long string of chart-riders disks. Tagged "Yocky Dock," the tune's a powerful middle beat blueser with a "Honky Tonk" approach that reaches its height on part 2, the side that could carry it to hitdom.

"LET THERE BE WOMEN" (2:27) [Tollie, Twilight BMI—Tucker]
"TLL BE WAITING FOR YOU" (2:27) [Tollie BMI—Kari]

GENE ALLISON (Vee-Jay 329)

● A steady driving, middle beat romancer, "Let There Be Women," is Allison's new bid for chartdom. He chants the stanza with feeling and passion, getting fine instrumental support from a guitar highlighted combo. Sentimental rock-a-ballad, "I'll Be Waiting For You," completes the potent coupling.

"UNEMPLOYMENT" (2:35)

[Arc BMI—Fuqua]

"MAMA LOOCIE" (2:30)

[Arc BMI—Gay, Fuqua]

HARVEY & THE MOONGLOWS (Chess 1738)

● Harvey & the Moonglows are teamed up again on two sock stanzas that'll more than likely break into both the r&b and pop hit listings. One side, set to a catchy rhythmic beat, finds the boys telling about the hardships of "Unemployment." The pace is picked up on the other end as the crew drives out a handclapping description of "Mama Loochie." Looks like a pair of winners here.

"GOOD GOOD LOVIN'" (2:15)

[Wisto BMI—Brown, Shubert]

"DON'T LET IT HAPPEN TO ME"

(2:43) [Wisto BMI—Brown]

JAMES BROWN (Federal 12361)

● These two lively sides carved out vigorously by Brown and the Famous Flames should add two more to Brown's hit list. In a more frantic vein is "Good Good Lovin'," in which everyone pitches in to create the wild atmosphere, while "Don't Let it Happen to Me" is more subdued, yet no less a delight. Watch 'em both.

"THAT'S ENOUGH" (2:06) [Selbonn-Dave BMI—Myles]

"NOBODY BUT ME" (2:30) [Selbonn-Raleigh BMI—Myles]

ANN COLE (Sir 272)

● The thrush's fervent warbling of "That's Enough," a rollicking rhythm opus with an earthy gospel-blues quality should put her in contention for both r&b and pop chart berths. Rocking combo-chorus pitches in exuberantly. Mildly swinging, jazz-tinged session holds forth on the "Nobody But Me" portion.

"HEY BABY" (2:05) [Arc BMI—Savage]

"YOUR LOVE" (2:25) [Arc BMI—Savage]

LUKE SAVAGE (Argo 5346)

● Newcomer Duke Savage comes up with a deck that has all the potential to blossom into a full-fledged rock 'n roll click. Savage enthusiastically pledges his love on "Hey Baby" as the Arribins back in rafter-shakin' vocal and instrumental fashion. Can step way out. Stick with it! Boys prettily blend on the inviting "Your Love" rock-a-ballad romancer.

● There's bound to be plenty of two-market activity in both the Fiestas and Sammy Turner decks (see pop reviews).

JOHNNY JACK

(Great 101)

B+ "SMACK MADAM (Get It All)" [Alan K. BMI—Jack] Could be a strong pop-R&B future for this rhythmic dandy for the kids. Jack admirably leads the air of rock festivity, receiving sunny support from the musicians. Eye it!

B "STARVING FOR LOVE" (2:10) [Alan K. BMI—Jack] Sentimental time and Jack essays the affair nicely. Saxs are an important background sound.

ROSCOE SHELTON

(Excello 2167)

B+ "PLEADIN' FOR LOVE" (2:12) [Excellorec BMI—Birdsong] Up-tempo blues lament is convincingly put across by Shelton, who delivers the sad words with soul.

B "PLEASE THINK IT OVER" (2:39) [Excellorec BMI—Shelton] Shelton continues in the blues vein, here with a slow, plodding pleaser. Chanter has a blues authority.

CHET "POISON" IVEY

(Atco 6148)

B+ "THE SLOP" (2:27) [Sylvia BMI—Ivey] Blues warbler Ivey relates some interesting and humorous fact about this teen dance. Hot instrumental backdrop scores hoover-wise. Can move.

C+ "TATER PATCH" (2:20) [Sylvia BMI—Ivey] More in the true blues vein is this earthy opus.

THE CARNATIONS

(Enrica 1001)

B+ "GIMME' GIMME' GIMME'" (1:55) [Enrica BMI—Van Dyke] Bright rhythm rocker is takin' the slick pro vocal group route with Eddie Wilcox's ork providing the hot instrumental drive. Rates attention.

B "LOVE OPEN UP MY HEART" (2:20) [Enrica BMI—Van Dyke] Pretty rock-a-ballad is tenderly essayed by the group. Male lead is a standout.

JIMMY TROTTER

(Swade 103)

B "TEAR DROPS ON MY PILLOW" [C&S BMI—Trotter, Carroll] Trotter offers a warm, expressive reading of slow fish beat, tearful sentimental theme.

C+ "EVERYBODY'S GOT A BABY BUT ME" [C&S BMI—Trotter, Carroll] Here Trotter swings into a jet speed, chorus-supported rocker.

PROF. ALEX BRADFORD

(Religious)

(Gospel 1028)

B+ "HE MAKES ALL MY DECISIONS FOR ME" [Savoy BMI—Bradford] Bradford leads the Ladies of Music in a thrilling rendition of his gripping gospel number. Deeply expressive deck.

B+ "BIG WIND BLOWING" [Savoy BMI—Bradford] Again the gals play an important part in the communication of a religious delight. This side's a joyous hand-clapper.

LIGHTNING HOPKINS

(Shad 5011)

B+ "HELLO CENTRAL" (2:42) [Brent BMI—Ellen] Hopkins, a blues artist of the old school, brings an authoritative warmth and richness to his singing. Tune's a slow, languid lament that he delivers with intense feeling. Top notch straight blues effort.

B+ "AS MAD AS I CAN BE" (2:30) [Brent BMI—Ellen] The tempo is picked up for another enjoyable excursion into the blues. Two excellent sides.

THE BARONS

(Demon 1520)

B+ "THE FIGHT" (2:15) [Elizabeth-LeAlan BMI—McEachin] Humorous "blow by blow" description of a fight is delightfully related by the group, a la the Coasters' style. The swinging, up-tempo affair also includes noise of crowd. Bears watching.

B+ "GRAVEL GERT" (2:20) [Elizabeth-LeAlan BMI—McEachin] Another generous helping of comedy is served up temptingly by the Barons, to a contagiously rocking beat. Group has the goods to make the dual-mart by time.

MACK SIMMON & HIS BOYS

(C. J. 607)

B+ "JUMPING AT CADILLAC" [BMI] Some slick harmonica playing is up front on this boogie-woogie-flavored instrumental. Lively side worth spins to the teeners.

B "I NEED YOU" [BMI] Strong blueser by a songster billed as Mack.

STAN NEWKIRK

(Moon 106)

B+ "PETER BABY SITS" (Part 2) (2:40) [Shaw BMI—Newkirk] Instrumental is belted with hard rock teen appeal. Hooper's special.

C+ "PETER BABY SITS" (Part 1) (2:32) [Shaw BMI—Newkirk] The vocal end of things here features a narrated story told over some wild baby crying sounds.

THE GOSPELAIRES (Religious)

(Peacock 1801)

B+ "HE HEARD ME CRY" (2:34) [Lion BMI—Arr. Lattimore, Washington] A rousing and thoroughly engrossing performance of a powerfully moving, fast paced gospel hymn. Emotion laden offering.

B "WHEN I RISE" (2:23) [Lion BMI—Peoples] Still more power packed gospel sounds here, this time at a medium pace.

STAPLE SINGERS (Religious)

(Vee-Jay 881)

B+ "SO SOON" (2:16) [Conrad BMI—Staples] Fine spiritual group delivers a testimony to their high standing with this passionate reading of a deeply moving theme. Femme lead's a treat.

B+ "DOWNWARD ROAD" (2:30) [Conrad BMI—Staples] Femme continues her zealous chirping on another powerful religious session.

THE CASH BOX BULLSEYE

"TOMORROW NIGHT" (2:25) "I'LL WALK WITH YOU" (2:31)
[Bourne ASCAP—Koslow, Grosz] [Cedarwood BMI—Cedar, Moeller]
CARL SMITH (Columbia 41489)

● Smith broke through the dual-market barrier with "10,000 Drums" and could do the same with both ends of his latest offering. "Tomorrow Night," the ballad with a shuffle beat oldie, finds Smith in a sweet romantic mood, while "I'll Walk With You," though also a romancer, is taken at a contagiously quick beat pace. Both tunes feature a pop-angled chorus in support. A two-sided, two-market special.

"ANGELS CRYIN'" (1:50) [Cedarwood BMI—Loudermilk]
"WALKIN' DOWN THE ROAD" (2:16) [Cedarwood BMI—Loudermilk]
JIMMY NEWMAN (MGM 12830)

● On the heels of "Grin and Bear It," Newman looks like a sure bet to repeat country-wise, with "Angels Cryin'" and also figures to break into the pop charts with it. Set to a "Kansas City" shuffle beat and with a pop-styled chorus assisting, the tune is marked for a long dual-market chart ride. The similarly-styled "Walkin' Down the Road" also rates two-market attention.

"AMIGO'S GUITAR" "LONELY IS A WORD"
[Cedarwood BMI—] (2:00)
Bodkin, Loudermilk, Wells] [Cedarwood BMI—Loudermilk]
KITTY WELLS (Decca 30987)

● Thrush's follow-up release to "Your Wild Life's Gonna Get You Down" again means money in the bank for all concerned. "Amigo's Guitar" is a Spanish-flavored lament set to a quiet, easy going Latin beat. "Lonely is a Word," a touching sentimental opus, finds Miss Wells at her sensitive best. Both can move. Take your pick.

"THERE'S A BIG WHEEL" (2:15) [Acuff-Rose BMI—Gibson]
"RACHEL'S GUITAR" (3:00) [Acuff-Rose BMI—Chapel]
WILMA LEE AND STONEY COOPER (Hickory 1107)

● The duo's rousing reading of "There's a Big Wheel," a lively hand-clapper sung with religious fervor, should join chart company with their current hit, "Big Midnight Special," and make it another smash for Lee & Cooper. Also look for big pop acceptance here. Miss Lee goes it alone on the flip, turning in a touching job on the ballad, "Rachel's Guitar."

"IF YOU WANT TO WEAR A CROWN" (2:00) "MY LORD HAS CALLED ME"
[Starrite BMI—Noack] (2:30)
[Starrite BMI—Jones, Weytek]
GEORGE JONES (Mercury 71506)

● George Jones, currently busting the charts wide open with "Who Shot Sam", turns to the sacred dept. for this Mercury outing. And he does a superb job with both the quick beat "If You Want To Wear A Crown" and the slow moving "My Lord Has Called Me". Fine choral support on the latter portion. Excellent two-sider.

"NERO PLAYED HIS FIDDLE" "WRITE ME SWEETHEART"
(2:38) (2:17)
[Acuff-Rose BMI—Miller, Lee] [Acuff-Rose BMI—Acuff]
ROY ACUFF (Hickory 1106)

● The veteran country song stylist could add two more hits to his extensive list "Nero Played His Fiddle" is a humorous tale about that historic legend done up country waltz style. On "Write Me Sweetheart," the scene changes to an up-tempo weeper that also gets across the true country sound. As per usual, the Stoney Mountain Boys play an important part on both sides.

"REACHING" (2:18) "I'D RATHER HAVE YOU" (2:30)
[Central BMI—McDonald] [Brazos Valley BMI—Blackman]
WANDA JACKSON (Capitol 4286)

● Wanda Jackson can kick up a chart fuss with either end of her latest Capitol coupling. Both are from the lover's lament category and both are decked out with the utmost sincerity by the songstress. They're the dual-tracked, slightly up tempo, "Reaching", and the three-quarter time, "I'd Rather Have You". Better eye this duo.

BILLY NIX
(Glenn 1800)

B+ "I'M A LUCKY GUY" (1:44)
[Hits of Tomorrow BMI—Nix] Nix's deep voice is caressingly tender delivering the lyrics to this lovely, up-tempo romancer. Rates the spins.

B "DEVOTED LOVE" (2:09) [Hits of Tomorrow BMI—Nix] Another lover's opus, this one taken at a slow ballad pace.

DIANE JEWETT
(Sundown 124)

B "TOMORROW" (2:25) [Durf, Vidor BMI—Jewett, Lawrence] Femme thrush is engaging on the touching lyrics of this lilted romantic. Real sincere effort deserves spins.

B "WITHOUT YOUR LOVE" (2:04) [Durf BMI—Jewett, Stewart] The gal is multi-tracked here and with rocking combo-chorus assist, knocks out a rhythm opus that has teen-pop appeal.

THE KENTUCKY TRAVELERS
(Starday 450)

B+ "THAT OLD MOON" (2:05)
[Starday BMI—Richmond, Shucher] The Travelers do justice to the true bluegrass sound with this middle beat lament. Choice side for the market.

B "DREAMING" (1:53) [Starday BMI—Richmond, Shucher] The tempo is picked up as the boys romp through another romancer. Mountain music treat.

ELMER SNODGRASS
(Country Jubilee 519)

B "UNTIL TODAY" (2:42)
[Ralph's Radio Music BMI—Snodgrass] Snodgrass and the Musical Pioneers deliver this weeper with appropriate tenderness. Touching lyrics are effectively wrapped in fine harmony by the group. Can collect coin.

B "SIDELINES" (2:41) [Ralph's Radio Music BMI—Franklin] Another fine expression of sadness occupies this end. Double helping of tears.

CHRIS CHRISTIAN
(Testa 104)

C+ "NO USE PRETENDING" (2:55)
[Ozark SESAC—Christian, Christian] Sad lament is sung with sincerity and feeling by Christian and the Chordaires.

C+ "LOVER BOY" (1:35) [Ozark SESAC—Christian] Up-tempo rock-a-billy session is handled exuberantly.

GLENN BARBER
(D 1098)

B+ "NEW GIRL IN SCHOOL" (2:26)
[Glad BMI—Barber] Medium paced ballad with a rock beat and teen lyrics for teen consumption. Pleasant outing.

B "GO HOME LETTER" (2:05)
[Glad BMI—Barber] Another lover's theme, this one with a lively approach.

JACK TUCKER
(Imperial 5623)

B+ "LONELY MAN" (2:00) [Mississippi Valley BMI—Walton] Quick paced infectiousness is communicated by Tucker via this delightful romantic romp. Look for dual-market coin here.

B "DON'T EVER GO" (2:05) [Mississippi Valley BMI—Walton] Attractive teen beat ballad is convincingly etched by the songster. Has the pop-country sound.

BOB WHITE
(Cimarron 4042)

B "I'LL TAKE YOU HOME AGAIN KATHLEEN" (2:10) [Cimarron BMI—Arr. White] Sentimental, soft string instrumental reading of the mainstay.

C+ "BEAUTIFUL OHIO" (2:15)
[Shapiro-Bernstein ASCAP—Ballard, MacDonald] Similar comment here. Possible programming material.

JIMMY JOINER
(University 201)

B+ "EVEN SO" (2:40) [Tree, Tune BMI—Joiner, Thomas] Joiner is soft and mellow on the pop styled ballad. Sensitive portrayal of the delicate romantic deserves spins. Could make it.

B+ "NERO" (2:20) [Tree, Tune BMI—Joiner] Appealing, comical, quick beat version of the legend of the famous fiddler. Well balanced coupling.

TOM TALL
(Sage 305)

B+ "THREE WALLS" (2:20) [Sage & Sand SESAC—Tall] Touching prisoner's lament is quietly and expressively essayed by Tall. Sincere, feelingful effort that could attract attention.

B+ "THIS ISLAND" (2:00) [Sage & Sand SESAC—Tall] Tall again takes a lament over the gentle, heart-rending route. Two weepers with a future.

ELMO LINN
(Westport 143)

B+ "SAM HOUSTON" (2:17) [Westport BMI—Linn] Bowing on the label, Linn sings a self-penned, march-time ditty about the hero of the Mexican War, backed by a male chorus. Can move with exposure.

B "ANOTHER'S ARMS" (2:14)
[Westport BMI—Linn] Middle beat weeper is given an acceptable traditional reading.

TED KIRBY
(Gala 104)

C+ "PINK PETTICOAT" (2:40)
[Perry BMI—Perry] Rocking opus about a guy that flips over pink petticoats. Conversation with a gal adds spice to deck.

C "AN EMPTY HOUSE" (2:30)
[Perry BMI—McNutt, Perry] Disenchanted sentimental theme is given a multi-track session.

WIDER COVERAGE of the EXPANDING EXPORT MARKET

An observation of the export market in Europe, reported in an editorial entitled "U.S. Exports", forecast an export situation that has come about since that time. A reference was made reading, "... coin machine equipment export orders from the U.S. are in for a decided jump ...". Just two weeks later in the September 12 issue, a bulletin from London, England appeared on these pages announcing the lifting of restrictions on importing of games to England.

The obvious connection between the observation forecasting greater business and the official announcement two weeks later was not a coincidence. Information which led to the publishing of the optimistic forecast was wired from our foreign correspondents in Europe. The official announcement, two weeks later, appeared in The Cash Box, probably even before the British press carried the story, and was the result of news coverage by The Cash Box executives who were touring Europe at this time. This one news story was only a part of the overall export news coverage provided by The Cash Box to its readers. It is referred to here merely to point out the importance of foreign news coverage of a growing export coin industry.

In conjunction with the growing importance of the export coin machine business, The Cash Box last week announced the opening of four offices in Europe. Representatives have been assigned to cover the European coin machine industry in Germany, England, Italy and the Benelux countries, Holland, Belgium and Luxemburg. These outlets are in addition to our coverage of Australia and Canada. The decision to expand our service was the result of several first-hand glimpses of the market, one of which was made during the Britain news break regarding lifting of import restrictions on games, mentioned previously.

The Cash Box believes wholeheartedly in this expansion of services to the coin machine industry. We feel that the export business can only grow, as we have seen it grow since its inception. This issue features our Quarterly International Edition, and as the export figures from around the world indicate, business is better than ever. We believe that trends in several European countries will eventually make this market a more important outlet for domestic business.

In line with the domestic picture, business at the manufacturing, distributing and operating levels here in the United States can look to a bright future. With manufacturers serving more foreign countries with equipment manufactured here and in Europe, sales must naturally increase. Distributors will increase volume through additional sales of reconditioned equipment; and the American operator stands to gain because of a greater demand from distributors for his used equipment. The export market will naturally benefit overall through the sale of better equipment imported from these shores.

Before any great gains can be made by either the United States or Europe, both sides must understand the other man's business. The Cash Box views these trends as an indication of a growing coin machine market. We therefore have made provisions for wider and more intensive news coverage of these markets and future markets as they appear. We consider the addition of our four European news offices a necessary facet in helping to bring about a greater, more profitable coin machine business for all concerned.

"INTERNATIONAL QUARTERLY EXPORT EDITION"

ANALYZATION OF THE 2nd QUARTER (APR., MAY, JUNE, 1959)

Exports Show Increase Of Almost $1,000,000. Over 1st Quarter

After several quarters in which the total dollar volume of exports of coin machines showed slight drops, the quarter which includes the months of April, May and June showed an increase of almost one million dollars. However, although this increase of approximately 22% in dollar volume would indicate an increase in unit sale, the contrary was the case. The total unit sales was off 94 from those of the first quarter. The apparent conclusion to be drawn from these figures is that newer and more expensive equipment was being purchased from the United States by the world markets.

Phonographs showed a large increase in both unit sales and dollar volume; games, though slightly under, kept at approximately the same unit and dollar figures; and merchandise vendors showed a drop of about 20% in both dollar and unit totals.

With restrictions lifted in Great Britain in June on phonographs and on games on September 3, export figures in both fields should show big jumps in the forthcoming months.

Further analysis in each division of the industry reveals the following information for the second quarter of 1959.

1) Phonographs: The automatic music machine business showed a healthy rise in this quarter over that of the first quarter of 1959. 5,293 units were exported to the world's markets for a total dollar volume of $3,626,385. These figures compare favorably with those of the first quarter which were 3,857 units and a dollar volume of $2,803,990. The total sales were also higher than those of the same period in 1958. One year ago 4,684 phonographs were shipped for a dollar value of $3,467,040. As encouraging as this picture now appears, the future looks even better. With the strengthening of the dollar in most countries of Europe restrictions are being relaxed (as in Great Britain on both phonographs and games) and great hopes are held out for similar happenings in other markets. Europe continues to be the largest importer of phonographs in the world with a total of 3,749 units and a dollar volume of $2,414,797. West Germany once again was by far the most prolific buyer, more than doubling the rest of the country, Belgium. With restrictions still in effect for most of the second quarter the United Kingdom was far down in the list of phonograph importations. The next quarter should show a large increase in this area. Germany, which also was Europe's largest buyer in the first quarter with 1,361 machines imported and $873,385 spent, this period topped both figures with 1,780 phonographs purchased at a total dollar volume of $1,192,842. In jumping its juke box imports from 555 to 813, Belgium became the world's second largest importer, taking this position from Venezuela, which dropped from 731 units to 574.

2) Amusement Machines: Purchases of amusement machines by importers, while showing a slight drop in units gained slightly in dollar volume. In the first quarter of 1959 5,181 amusement machines were imported by the total world markets, whereas in the second quarter only 5,034 were shipped by the United States. However, the total dollar volume showed a gross of $1,212,145, against a first quarter total of $1,162,890. Belgium was Europe's biggest unit importer of games during the months of April, May and June. It imported 1,079 units for which it spent $162,590. However, both West Germany and Switzerland, who imported less units, surpassed the Belgium dollars spent. West Germany paid $250,785. for 856 games, while Switzerland spent a total of $175,077. for 405 units. Canada, America's neighbor on the north, was the world's biggest importer of games. It purchased 1,196 units for a dollar volume of $263,317. Leading the South American countries was Venezuela with 257 games imported for a dollar value of $71,751.

3) Vending Machines: Here too, American manufacturers found that the total number of vending machines shipped to its world markets was down—approximately 20%. However, it seems that the trend was to more expensive equipment since the dollars gained in the second quarter was about $200,000. The first quarter of 1959 showed 10,235 units sold for a dollar value of $515,216, whereas the months of April, May and June showed a drop in units to 8,852 and a rise in dollars to $714,933. In Europe Germany spent the most dollars, $165,201. for 902 machines. Belgium, continuing its trend to less expensive equipment, imported 4100 vendors, but spent only at total of $43,485. Canada was the biggest customer of the United States, spending $397,993. for 3,220 machines. Europe purchased a great deal more equipment in this second quarter than it had in the previous three months. It spent a total of $272,749. in April, May and June, against a total of $159,742. in January, February and March.

"INTERNATIONALE VIERTELJÄHRliche EXPORTAUSGABE"

ANALYSE DES ZWEITEN VIERTELJAHRES (APRIL, MAI, JUNI 1959)

Die Ausfuhr Zeigt Eine Zunahme Von Fast $1,000,000 Im Vergleich Mit Dem Ersten Vierteljahr

Nach mereren Vierteljahre, in welchen der Exportdollarwert für Münzautomaten einen geringen Rückgang zeigte, brachte das die Monate April, Mai und Juni einschliessende Vierteljahr einen Zuwachs von fast einer Million Dollar. Obgleich dieser Dollarwertzuwachs von ca. 22% auf eine Zunahme der Anzahl der verkauften Automaten hinzuweisen scheint, so ist doch gerade das Gegenteil der Fall. Die Anzahl der verkauften Automaten war im Vergleich mit dem ersten Vierteljahr um 94 geringer. Die augenscheinliche aus diesen Zahlen zu ziehende Schlussfolgerung ist selbstredend, dass der Weltmarkt neuere und teure Ausrüstungen aus den Vereinigten Staaten aufnahm.

Die Plattenspieler zeigten eine starke Zunahme in der Anzahl der verkauften Automaten wie auch im Dollarwert; die Unterhaltungsspiele standen ein wenig hinten an, doch war ihre Anzahl und ihr Dollarwert annähernd der gleiche; die Verkaufsautomaten jedoch zeigten einen Rückgang von ca. 20% im Dollarwert wie auch in der Anzahl der verkauften Maschinen.

Da die in Grossbritannien bestehenden Einfuhreinschränkungen für Plattenspieler im Juni und für Unterhaltungsspiele am 3. September d.J. aufgehoben worden sind, so sollten die Ausfuhrzahlen für beide Artikel in den kommenden Monaten einen grossen Aufschwung erleben.

Eine weitere Analyse jeder Abteilung der Industrie ergibt die folgenden Einzelheiten für das zweite Vierteljahr d.J. 1959:

1) Plattenspieler: Das Musikautomatengeschäft erlebte in diesem Vierteljahr im Vergleich mit dem ersten d.J. 1959 einen gesunden Aufschwung. Eine Anzahl von 5.292 Automaten in einem Gesamtwert von $3.626.385 wurde auf die Weltmärkte ausgeführt. Diese Zahlen erscheinen günstig im Vergleich mit dem ersten Vierteljahr, in welchem 3.857 Automaten im Gesamtdollarwert von $2.803.90 ausgeführt wurden. Die Gesamtverkaufszahl war auch höher als diejenige für dieselbe Zeitspanne von 1958. Vor einem Jahre wurden 4.684 Plattenspieler im Werte von $3.467.040 verschifft. Wie ermutigend das Bild heute auch erscheint, so sind die Anzeichen für die Zukunft sogar noch besser. Mit der Stärkung des Dollars in den meisten Ländern Europas werden die Einschränkungen immer mehr erleichtert (wie mit den Plattenspielern und Unterhaltungsspielen in Grossbritannien), und man ist guter Hoffnung, dass andere Märkte diesem Beispiel folgen werden. Europa ist nach wie vor der grösste Importeur von Plattenspielern in der Welt, und zwar mit einer Gesamtanzahl von 3.749 Automaten und einen Dollarwert von $2.414.797. West-Deutschland stand als Käufer wiederum weit voran, ging doch dorthin die doppelte Anzahl im Vergleich mit Belgien, das an zweiter Stelle steht. Da die Einschränkungen im Vereinigten König-reich von Grossbritannien für den grösseren Teil des zweiten Vierteljahres noch gültig waren, so stand dieses Land sehr tief auf der Liste für die Einfuhr von Plattenspielern. Das nächste Vierteljahr sollte jedoch in diesem Gebiet einen grossen Anwachs aufweisen. Deutschland, welches Land schon im ersten Vierteljahr mit 1.361 importierten Automaten im Werte von $873.385 der grösste Käufer Europas war, ging in diesem Vierteljahr über beide Zahlen hinaus: 1.780 Plattenspieler von einem Gesamtdollarwert von $1.192.842 wurden gekauft. Belgien sprang im Ankauf von Juteboxes von 555 auf 813 und wurde somit zum zweitgrössten Importeur der Welt anstelle von Venezuela, wo die Einfuhr von 731 Automaten auf nur 574 zurückging.

2) Unterhaltungsspiele: Die Ankäufe von Unterhaltungsspielen durch Importeure ging in der Anzahl ein wenig zurück, doch stieg der Dollarwert im ein Geringes an. Im ersten Vierteljahr d.J. 1959 wurden 5.181 Unterhaltungsspiele von allen Weltmärkten importiert, doch wurden im zweiten Vierteljahr nur 5.034 aus den Vereinigten Staaten verschifft. Der Gesamtdollarwert belief sich jedoch auf $1.212.145 im Vergleich mit einem Gesamtwert von $1.162.890 im ersten Vierteljahr. Belgien war in den Monaten April, Mai und Juni der grösste Importeur von Unterhaltungsspielen Europas. Dieses Land importierte 1.079 Automaten und gab dafür $162.590 aus. Doch West-Deutschland und die Schweiz, die beide eine geringere Anzahl einführen, überflügelten Belgien im Werte der dafür ausgegebenen Dollar. West-Deutschland zahlte $250.785 für 856 Unterhaltungsspiele, während die Schweiz $175.077 für 405 Automaten ausgab. Kanada, der nördliche Nachbar der U.S.A., war der grösste Importeur von Unterhaltungsspielen der Welt. Dieses Land kaufte 1.196 Automaten für einen Dollarwert von $263.317. In Süd-Amerika war Venezuela mit der Einfuhr von 257 Unterhaltungsspielen im Werte von $71.751 führend.

3) Verkaufsautomaten: Auch hier fanden die amerikanischen Hersteller, dass die Gesamtanzahl der auf die Weltmärkte verschifften Verkaufsautomaten zurückgegangen war, und zwar um ca. 20%. Doch scheint es, dass eine Tendenz zum Ankauf von teureren Ausrüstungen bestand, da der Dollarwert derselben sich im zweiten Vierteljahr um ca. $200.000 erhöht hatte. Im ersten Vierteljahr d.J. 1959 waren 10.235 Automaten im Werte von $515.216 verkauft worden, während die im April, Mai und Juni verkaufte Anzahl von Automaten auf 8.852 herunterging, der Dollarwert jedoch auf $714.933 anstieg. In Europa gab Deutschland die meisten Dollar aus, und zwar $165.201 für 902 Automaten. In Belgien blieb die Tendenz nach billigeren Ausrüstungen bestehen: es wurden 4100 Verkaufsautomaten importiert, welche jedoch einen Gesamtwert von nur $43.485 hatten.

Die Herstellertätigkeit der Fabriken während dem letzten Vierteljahr (Juli, August und September)

Kanada war der grösste Kunde der U.S.A. mit einer Ausgabe von $387.993 für 3.220 Automaten. Europa kaufte im zweiten Vierteljahr viel mehr Ausrüstungen als in den vorhergehenden drei Monaten. Dieses Land gab im April, Mai und Juni $272.749 aus im Vergleich zu einer Gesamtsumme von $159.742 im Januar, Februar und März.

"EDICIÓN TRIMESTRAL INTERNACIONAL DE EXPORTACIÓN"

ANÁLISIS DEL 2º TRIMESTRE (APROX., ABRIL, MAYO, JUNIO, 1959)

Las Exportaciones Acusan un Aumento de Casi $1,000,000 Sobre el Premier Trimestre

Después de varios trimestres durante los cuales el volumen total en dólares de las exportaciones de máquinas accionadas por monedas acusó leves bajas, el trimestre correspondiente a los meses de abril, mayo y junio registró un aumento de casi un millón de dólares de la impresión de que han aumentado las ventas individuales, esto dista mucho de ser la verdad. En realidad, el total de ventas unitarias fué de 94 menos que el del primer trimestre. De estas cifras puede deducirse, aparentemente, que los mercados mundiales han negado adquiriendo en los Estados Unidos equipos más nuevos y costosos.

Los fonógrafos registraron un aumento considerable en relación con las ventas individuales y en la cifra total traducida en dólares; en los juegos no llegaron a tal nivel, de todas maneras se mantuvieron más o menos a la misma altura en cuanto a ventas individuales y el imports en dólares. Por otra parte, las expendedoras de mercancía acusaron una baja de más o menos 20% en los totales de ventas individuales y de dólares.

A consecuencia de la suspensión de las restricciones en junio sobre fonógrafos, y juegos en la Gran Bretaña, el 3 de septiembre, las cifras de exportación correspondientes a ambas ramas deberá registrar aumentos considerable durante los meses venideros.

Los nuevos análisis verificados en cada una de las divisiones de la industria revelan la siguiente información correspondiente al segundo trimestre de 1959:

1) Fonógrafos: El negocio de máquinas musicales automáticas registró un buen aumento en este trimestre sobre el del primer trimestre de 1959. En ese período se exportaron 5,293 unidades a todos los países del mundo por la suma total de $3,626,385. Estas cifras se comparan favorablemente con las del primer trimestre que fueron de 3,857 unidades por valor total de $2,803,990. El total de las ventas fue también superior al del mismo período en 1958. Hace un año se despacharon 4,684 fonógrafos por el importe total de $3,467,040. Por más alentadora que parezca la situación actual en este sentido, el futuro parece ser aún más halagador. A consecuencia de la mayor solidez del dólar en la mayor parte de los países europeos, las restricciones se han moderado (tal como en la Gran Bretaña sobre los fonógrafos y juegos), y se anticipa que esto suceda también en otros mercados de ultramar. Europa sigue siendo la mayor importadora de fonógrafos en el mundo, con un total de 3,749 unidades valoradas en $2,414,797. Una vez más, la Alemania Occidental llegó a ser el comprador más prolífico, comprando dos veces más que el siguiente país, Bélgica. A causa de las restricciones aun en vigor en el Reino Unido durante la mayor parte del segundo trimestre, las importaciones de esa nación, en materia de fonógrafos fueron mucho menores en la lista. Es posible que ocurra un buen aumento en ese país durante el próximo trimestre. Alemania, que también fué el mejor cliente europeo de los Estados Unidos, comprando 1,361 máquinas por valor de $873,375 en el primer trimestre, sobrepasó en dicho período ambas cifras por medio de 1,780 fonógrafos adquiridos por el importe total de $1,192,842. Al aumentar sus importaciones de "juke box" (fonógrafos accionados por monedas) de 555 a 813, Bélgica se convirtió en la segunda nación del mndo importadora, ocupando el lugar de Venezuela que bajó de 731 a 574 unidades.

2) Máquinas de Diversión: Aunque las máquinas de diversión compradas por los importadores acusaron una leve baja en el número de unidades importadas, su valor en dólares fué algo mayor. En el curso del primer trimestre de 1959, todos los países del mundo importaron 5,181 máquinas de diversión, mientras que en el segundo trimestre los Estados Unidos despacharon solamente 5,034 máquinas. Empero, el importe total bruto fué de $1,212,145, en comparación con la suma total de $1,162,890 correspondiente al primer trimestre. Bélgica fué la nación europea que importó más juegos durante los meses de abril, mayo y junio. Compró 1,079 unidades por valor de $162,590. Sin embargo, tanto la Alemania Occidental como Suiza, que importaron menos, unidades, sobrepasaron el número de dólares invertido por Bélgica. La Alemania Occidental pagó $250,785 por 856 juegos, en tanto que Suiza invirtió un total de $175,077 en 405 unidades. El Canadá, vecino de los Estados Unidos en la frontera septentrional, fué el principal importador de juegos del mundo. Llegó a comprar 1,196 unidades por valor de $263,317. A la cabeza de los países sudamericanos estuvo Venezuela que importó 257 juegos por valor de $71,751.

3) Máquinas Expendedoras: En este caso los fabricantes de los Estados Unidos se convencieron también de que se había reducido el número total de máquinas expendedoras despachadas a sus mercados mundiales—aproximadamente 20%. Sin embargo, parece que latencia se encamina o dirige a la compra de equipos más costosos, ya que la cantidad de dólares obtenida en el segundo trimestre fué de unos $200,000. El primer trimestre de 1959 registró la venta de 10,235 unidades por valor $515,216, mientras que los meses de abril, mayo y junio acusaron una baja de unidades hasta de 8,852 y un aumento en dólares hasta de $714,933. En cuanto a Europa, Alemania invirtió las mayores sumas en dólares, o sea, $165,201 por 902 máquinas. Bélgica, siguiendo su costumbre de comprar máquinas menos costosas, importó 4100 expendedoras, pero sólo gastó un total de $43,485. El Canadá fué el mejor cliente de los Estados Unidos, invirtiendo $397,993 en 3,220 máquinas. Europa compró muchos más equipos en este segundo trimestre que en los tres meses anteriores. Invirtió un total de $272,749

"EDITION INTERNATIONALE TRIMESTRIELLE D'EXPORTATIONS"

ANALYSE DU SECOND TRIMESTRE (AVRIL, MAI, JUIN, 1959)

Les Exportations Accusent Une Augmentation De Pres De $1,000,000 Par Rapport Au Premier Trimestre

Après plusieurs trimestres où le volume total des exportations en valeur dollars montrait de légères baisses, le trimestre comprenant les mois d'avril, de mai et de juin accusaient une augmentation de près de un million de dollars. Toutefois, malgré cette hausse de près de 22% dans le volume dollars pourrait indiquer une augmentation dans les unités de vente, le contraire est arrivé. Ya vente totale en unités était inférieure de 94 de celle du premier trimestre. La conclusion apparemment à tirer de ces chiffres est que du matériel plus neuf et plus cher a été acheté aux Etats-Unis par les marchés mondiaux.

Les phonographes montrent une sérieuse augmentation tant en vente par unités qu'en valeur dollars; les jeux, quoique légèrement inférieurs, se sont maintenus à approximativement les mêmes nombres en unité et en dollars; et les machines à distribution automatique accusaient une chute d'environ 20% tant en dollars qu'en ventes unitaires.

Comme les restrictions ont été levées en juin en Grande-Bretagne sur les phonographes et le 3 septembre sur les jeux, les chiffres d'exportation pour les deux catégories devraient augmenter sensiblement dans les mois à venir.

Une analyse plus approfondie de chaque division de l'industrie fournit les informations suivantes pour le deuxième trimestre de 1959.

1) Phonographs: Le commerce des machines à musique automatique a fait du bon progrès pendant ce trimestre, comparé au premier trimestre de 1959. On a exporté 5,293 unités vers les marchés mondiaux pour une valeur totale de $3,626,385. Ces chiffres se comparent favorablement avec ceux du premier trimestre qui s'élevèrent à 3,857 unités avec une valeur dollars de $2,803,990. Les ventes totales étaient en outre plus élevées que celle pendant la même période de 1958. L'année dernière on a embarqué 4,684 phonographes pour une valeur dollars de $3,467,040. Quoique ce tableau soit encourageant, l'avenir promet d'être encore meilleur. Par suite d'un renforcement du dollar dans la plupart des pays d'Europe, les restrictions sont plus relâchées (comme c'est le cas en Grande-Bretagne pour les phonographes et les jeux) et on a de grands espoirs que des situations similaires se développeront sur les autres marchés. L'Europe continue à être le plus grand importateur de phonographes dans le monde, avec un total de 3,749 unités et une valeur de $2,414,797. L'Allemagne Occidentale était une fois de plus l'acheteur le plus prolifique, en faisant mieux que le double du pays suivant, la Belgique. Comme les restrictions étaient encore en grande partie en vigueur pendant le deuxième trimestre en Grande-Bretagne, ce pays se trouvait au bas de la liste pour les importations de phonographes. Le trimestre suivant montrera probablement une sérieuse augmentation sous ce rapport. L'Allemagne, qui fut aussi le plus important acheteur pendant le premier trimestre avec 1,361 machines importées pour une dépense de $873,385, a dépassé ces chiffres de 1,780 phonographes et d'une valeur de $1,192,842. En sautant de 555 à 813 pour ses importations de machines à musique, la Belgique devint le second importateur dans le monde, en enlevant cette position au Venezuela, qui descendit de 731 à 574 unités.

2) Machines de Jeux: Les achats de machines de jeux par les importateurs, accusent une légère baisse en unités et une hausse également légère en valeur dollars. Au premier trimestre de 1959 on a importé 5,181 machines de jeux sur les marchés mondiaux, alors que pendant le deuxième trimestre 5,034 seulement de ces machines furent expédiées des Etats-Unis. Toutefois, la valeur totale en dollars donnait un chiffre brut de $1,212,145, contre un total de $1,162,890 pour le premier trimestre. La Belgique a été le plus important preneur de machines de jeux en Europe pour les mois d'avril, de mai et de juin. Elle a importé 1,079 unités pour une dépense de $250,785. Cependant l'Allemagne Occidentale et la Suisse qui ont importé moins d'unités, dépassèrent la Belgique en valeur dollars. L'Allemagne Occidentale a payé $250,785 pour 856 jeux, pendant que la Suisse a dépensé $175,077 pour 405 unités. Le Canada, le voisin du nord de l'Amérique, était le plus grand importateur du monde de jeux. Il a acheté 1,196 unités pour un volume en dollars de $263,317. Le Venezuela venait en tête pour les pays Sud-Américains avec 257 jeux importés pour une valeur dollars se montant à $71,751.

3) Machines à Distribution Automatique: Ici encore les fabricants américains ont constaté que le nombre total de machines à distribution automatique envoyées à ses marchés mondiaux, avait diminué—d'environ 20%. Toutefois, il semblerait que la tendance était vers le matériel plus cher, puisqu'on a gagné environ $200,000 pendant le deuxième trimestre. Le premier trimestre de 1959 a vu 10,235 unités vendues pour une valeur de $515,216, alors que les mois d'avril, de mai et de juin montrèrent une baisse en unités jusqu'à 8,852 mais une augmentation en dollars jusqu'à $714,933. En Europe, c'est l'Allemagne qui a dépensé le plus de dollars, $165,201, pour 902 machines. La Belgique, continuant sa tendance à acheter du matériel moins cher, a importé 4100 machines, mais n'a dépensé que $43,485. Le Canada a été le plus grand client des Etats-Unis en dépensant $397,993 pour 3,220 machines. L'Europe a acheté un matériel plus nombreux pendant le deuxième trimestre, comparé au premier trimestre. Elle a dépensé un total de $272,749 en avril, mai et juin, contre un total de $159,742 en janvier, février et mars.

"EDIZIONE PER L'ESPORTAZIONE INTERNAZIONALE TRIMESTRALE"

ANALISI DEL SECONDO TRIMESTRE (APRILE, MAGGIO, GIUGNO 1959)

Le esportazioni mostrano un aumento di circa 1 milione di dollari rispetto al primo trimestre

Dopo diversi trimestri in cui il volume totale di dollari dell'esportazione di macchine azionate a moneta ha registrato leggere diminuzioni, il trimestre comprendente i mesi di aprile, maggio e giugno hanno fatto registrare un aumento di circa un milione di dollari. Tuttavia, sebbene questo aumento di circa il 22% del volume di dollari starebbe a indicare un aumento di vendite di unità di macchinario, si è verificato esattamente il contrario. Le vendite totali di unità hanno fatto registrare una diminuzione di 94 rispetto a quelle del primo trimestre. La conclusione evidente da trarsi da queste cifre è che i mercati mondiali hanno acquistato dagli Stati Uniti macchinario più nuovo e più costoso.

I fonografi hanno fatto registrare un forte aumento sia delle vendite di unità che del volume di dollari; i giochi, sebbene in leggera flessione, si sono mantenuti circa allo stesso livello di numero di unità e di cifra in dollari; le macchine per la vendita di merce hanno sofferto una flessione di circa il 20% sia in volume di dollari che in quantitativi totali di unità vendute.

Con l'abolizione delle restrizioni in Gran Bretagna in giugno per i fonografi e il 3 settembre per i giochi, le cifre relative al volume di esportazioni in entrambi i settori hanno registrato attualmente e faranno registrare forti sbalzi nei prossimi mesi.

Un'analisi ulteriore in ogni campo dell'industria porta alla luce i seguenti dati per il secondo trimestre del 1959.

1) Fonografi: Il settore delle macchine musicali automatiche ha fatto registrare un aumento salutare in questo trimestre rispetto a quello del primo trimestre del 1959. Sono stati esportati nei mercati mondiali 5.293 unità per il volume totale in dollari di $3.626.385. Queste cifre sostengono un raffronto favorevole con quelle del primo trimestre che erano state di 3.857 unità e del volume di dollari di $2.803.990. Il volume totale di vendite è anche stato superiore a quello dello stesso periodo del 1958. Un anno fa vennero spediti 4.684 fonografi per il valore in dollari di $3.467.040. Questa situazione appare attualmente molto incoraggiante e si prospetta anche maggiormente incoraggiante per il futuro. Il rafforzarsi della posizione del dollaro nella maggior parte delle nazioni di Europa ha portato all'allentamento delle restrizioni (come, per esempio, in Gran Bretagna, sia per quanto riguarda i fonografi che i giochi) e si nutrono forti speranze per il verificarsi di simile allentamento in altri mercati. L'Europa continua a essere la primaria importatrice di fonografi del mondo con un totale di 3.749 unità e un volume di dollari di $2.414.797. La Germania è stata ancora una volta la prima acquirente, più che doppiando la seconda nazione, il Belgio. Con le restrizioni all'importazione ancora in vigore per la maggior parte del secondo trimestre, il Regno Unito è stato in posizione molto arretrata nella classifica delle nazioni importatrici di fonografi. Il prossimo trimestre dovrebbe far registrare un forte aumento in questa zona. La Germania, che era stata la massima acquirente europea nel primo trimestre con 1.361 macchine importate e con la spesa di $873.385, ha superato in questo periodo tutte e due le cifre con l'acquisto di 1.780 fonografi e un volume totale di dollari di $1.192.842. Nel far registrare il forte scarto di importazioni di fonografi automatici da 555 a 813, il Belgio si è piazzato al secondo posto della classifica mondiale dei massimi acquirenti, soppiantando il Venezuela che ha fatto registrare la diminuzione da 731 a 574 unità.

2) Macchine da divertimento: Gli acquisti di macchine da divertimento da parte di importatori, se pure hanno fatto registrare una leggera flessione di unità acquistate, ha guadagnato leggermente in volume di dollari. Nel primo trimestre del 1959 sono state importate dalla totalità dei mercati mondiali 5.181 macchine da divertimento, mentre nel secondo trimestre ne vennero spedite dagli Stati Uniti soltanto 5.034. Comunque, il volume totale di dollari ha fatto registrare una cifra lorda di $1.212.145, rispetto a quella totale del primo trimestre di $1.162.890. Il Belgio è stato la massima nazione d'Europa per le importazioni per unità di giochi durante i mesi di aprile, maggio e giugno. Il Belgio ha importato 1.079 unità per le quali ha speso $162.590. Tuttavia, sia la Germania Occidentale che la Svizzera, che hanno importato un numero minore di unità, hanno sorpassato il Belgio in volume di dollari speso. La Germania Occidentale ha pagato $250.785 per 856 giochi, mentre la Svizzera ha speso un totale di $175.077 per 405 unità. Il Canada, al confine settentrionale degli Stati Uniti, è stato il massimo importatore mondiale di giochi. Esso ha acquistato 1.196 unità per il volume in dollari di $263.317. In testa alla graduatoria delle nazioni sud-americane è stato il Venezuela con l'importazione di 257 giochi per il valore in dollari di $71.751.

3) Dispensatrici automatiche: Anche in questo settore, i fabbricanti americani hanno riscontrato che il numero globale di distributrici automatiche spedite nei propri mercati mondiali è stato in diminuzioni di circa il 20%. Tuttavia, sembra che vi sia stata una tendenza verso l'acquisto di macchinario più costoso dal momento che i dollari incassati nel secondo trimestre sono stati circa $200.000. Il primo trimestre del 1959 aveva fatto registrare la vendita di 10.235 unità per il valore in dollari di $515.216, mentre i mesi di aprile, maggio e giugno hanno fatto registrare una diminuzione di unità a 8.852 e l'aumento del volume di dollari a $714.933. In Europa, la Germania ha speso il massimo volume di dollari, $165.201 per 902 macchine. Il Belgio, mantenendo la propria tendenza verso l'acquisto di macchinario meno costoso, ha importato 4100 distributrici auto-matici, spendendo però il totale di $43.485. Il Canada è stato il massimo cliente degli Stati Uniti, con una spesa di $397.993 per 3.220 macchine. L'Europa ha acquistato un quantitativo di macchine molto maggiore nel secondo trimestre rispetto al primo trimestre. Essa ha speso il totale di $272.749 in aprile, maggio e giugno, contro il totale di $159.742 speso in gennaio, febbraio e marzo.

Attività dei fabbricanti durante il trimestre trascorso (luglio, agosto e settembre)

AMI, Inc., Grand Rapids, Michigan, che sta attualmente producendo il proprio fonografo della serie modello "J", con 100 e 200 selezioni per entrambi gli apparecchi stereofonico e mono-aurale. Sono disponibili due altoparlanti per il montaggio stereofonico.

Auto-Bell Manufacturing Company, Chicago, Illinois, ha introdotto il "Gallop Dominoes" mentre ha continuato a fabbricare i giochi verticali "Play Ball" e "Wagon Wheel" e il "Circus Wagon Wheel".

COIN INDUSTRY IN U. S. ENTHUSED OVER THE CASH BOX OPENINGS IN 4 COUNTRIES

Coinmen See Move As Means Of Speeding Export Business Via Broader Coverage Of Market

Expect Greater Volume To Result From Closer Ties Between Nations

NEW YORK—Announcement last week of the opening of four European offices of The Cash Box in England, Germany, Italy and the Benelux Countries, was greeted with tremendous enthusiasm at all levels of the coin machine industry across this nation.

The decision to expand export services to the coin machine industry was originally brought about by the opinion of The Cash Box executives that the coin machine export business will grow at a faster pace with the lifting of restrictions on games imports in England, a situation noted here some time before the official announcement was made. Other observations made by The Cash Box staff during visits to the Continent this year confirmed these opinions that the export coin machine business would grow through increased volume in countries presently accepting U.S. exports and countries considering the lifting of restrictions now in effect.

Typical of the comments from coinmen in this country was the enthusiasm by wholesalers who eventually will increase sales through expansion programs all centered in the firms' export departments. It was the unanimous opinion of the distributors that a stronger tradepaper relationship between the European markets and this country would tend to speed up the transaction of business between the U.S. and abroad. Personal contacts, through The Cash Box officials in Europe, reported in the pages of the nation's tradepaper over here, were seen as a means whereby sellers of equipment would eventually familiarize themselves with the European scene, a process heretofore almost impossible, or at best, quite slow, except for personal visits to the foreign countries involved.

Phonograph and game manufacturers in this country, who in recent years, have had manufacturing facilities in foreign countries supply operators and distributors in Europe, saw the expansion of tradepaper coverage as a means of reporting their respective messages to a larger number of customers in a wider market of representation.

In many respects, The Cash Box was acknowledged as the first clear interpretation of the foreign coin machine industry news, since, while the European publications are excellent in reproduction and format, a clearly defined interpretation of this same news was necessary from the American point of view. In situations involving European news, The Cash Box will present this news in a format designed to acquaint as well as inform the American coinmen of the export market progress. The Cash Box offices in Europe are located at the following addresses: ENGLAND: Neville Marten, 9a New Bond Street, London, W.1, England, Telephone: Hyde Park 2868; GERMANY: Eva Morell, Hotel Deutscheshaus, Bahnhofstrasses 298, Lehrte, Hannover, Germany; ITALY: Vittorio de Michelli, Via P. Lomazzo 27, Milano, Italy, Telephone: 341189; Benelux, Skip Voogd, Johannes Comphuystraat 189, The Hague, Holland. In addition to the above four offices, The Cash Box has had offices in Australia and Canada which were organized some time ago.

"Young Men's Coin Machine League" Shows Promise As Membership Grows

NEW YORK—"The Young Men's Coin Machine League" has been the reason for a steady flow of mail into The Cash Box offices from coinmen under forty years of age, in the United States and all over the world. The organization of young coinmen was

Bally's Jones Reports On PR Progress

Herb Jones, Bally V. P., Advises Coin Industry Of Accomplishments Since Inception

HERB JONES

CHICAGO—Herb Jones, vice-president of Bally Manufacturing Company, this city and an important spokesman for the recently formed Information Council of the Coin-Operated Industry, issued a statement last week, wherein he stressed the fact that public relations problems of the coin-operated equipment industry are being seriously and minutely studied by a number of public relations firms, which hope to offer solutions and suggestions by October 15.

"We wish to advise all facets of the industry that we have made several long strides forward since we first met July 1 in Chicago, at a luncheon-meeting sponsored by George A. Miller, president and managing director of the Music Operators of America," stated Jones.

"There is a general feeling among the entire membership of the executive committee," he continued, "that our progress has not only been very promising and fruitful but, also rapid.

"More recently," Jones said, "since the meeting of the executive committee in this city, on September 11, when key personnel of several well rated public relations firms were briefed on industry problems representatives of these firms have asked to discuss these problems in greater detail with me.

"Their questions about every phase of the industry, as well as their response to my probing of their thinking, convinces me that they are going very deeply into every ramification of public relations for the industry.

"The executive committee will consider the proposals of several public relations counsellors at a meeting which will be held in this city on October 15. Based on my informal conferences with these men, I expect very sound and sensible programs to be presented to us—public relations programs which will really help the industry now, and in the future.

"We will announce the results of the general findings, and the executive committee's decision, immediately following the October 15 meeting, in the trade papers," Jones said in conclusion.

As was previously reported in The Cash Box, other members of the executive committee of the Information Council of the Coin-Operated Equipment Industry are: Lou Casola, head of Midwest Distributing Company, Rockford, Illinois, president; J. A. (Art) Weinand, sales director of Chicago Dynamic Industries; Ed Ratajack, vice-president in charge of sales for Automatic Music, Incorporated (AMI); Bob Slifer, managing director of the National Coin Machine Distributors' Association (NCMDA); Lester Montooth, Phonograph Sales Company, Peoria, Illinois; and, Anthony C. (Andy) Hesch, A. H. Entertainers, Incorporated, Arlington Heights, Illinois.

Wurlitzer Merchandises "No. 1" Advertising Theme

NORTH TONAWANDA, N.Y. — A. D. Palmer, advertising and sales promotion manager, The Wurlitzer Company this city, advised all Wurlitzer distributors that reprints of the firm's "First In Sales" advertising campaign which appears in The Cash Box, and which has resulted in a great deal of interest from the music machine industry, will be mailed to each showroom for purposes of display.

"These (reprints) should call to the attention of operators the fact that more new Wurlitzer phonographs are on location than those of any other make," stated Palmer.

U. S. Biz Booms During 2nd Quarter

Manufacturers Sales and Profits Set Record

WASHINGTON, D. C.—As it is generally known, business thruout the United States these past months has been on an upward surge.

The Federal Trade Commission and Securities and Exchange Commission reported this week that both sales and earnings of U. S. manufacturing corporations rose to new records during the second quarter of 1959 (April-June). Sales of manufacturing companies in this quarter were $88.4 billion, a gain of $7.7 billion over the previous quarter (January-March). Compared with the second quarter of 1958, the gain was $13.8 billion.

Second quarter profits after taxes were $4.9 billion, an increase of $1 billion over the first quarter; and $2 billion over the second quarter of 1958.

The Commission reported that, as in the past, the larger size firms had the highest rates of return, but the smaller size classes generally showed the best improvement during the second quarter.

There were 11 individual major groups that reported second quarter 1959 sales at an all-time record. These included motor vehicle, electrical machinery, iron and steel, non-ferrous metals, stone, clay and glass, lumber, tobacco, paper, chemicals, rubber and leather products.

General Export Sales Revived Upward

Coin Machines Follow Trend

NEW YORK—It is axiomatic that when business conditions thruout the United States are prosperous so are those in the coin machinery industry—from the factory down thru the operating fraternity.

As this same condition should also exist in export sales of coin operated equipment to foreign buyers, it is interesting to report an analysis by the editor of The Journal of Commerce.

"The movement in exports since the middle of the year provides firm ground for the hope that we are out of the trough of the foreign sales slump that set in during 1958," writes this editor. (Ed. note: Statistics of coin machine exports bear out this contention—see Page 64.)

"The pickup in June, July and August was modest but, by contrast, encouraging," continued this business editor, about the general export business. "Industrialists should be able to cash in more heavily this Fall on what appears to be a worldwide expansion of business activity.

"The world upward trend in world commerce," concludes the expert, "if not spectacular, does rest on a relatively solid foundation."

JOE WESTERHAUS

CINCINNATI, OHIO — Joseph G. Westerhaus, president of Royal Distributing, Incorporated, this city, announced last week that he and his staff will host a gala two day Grand Opening of Royal's new headquarters at 222 East Third Street here, on Saturday and Sunday, October 10 and 11.

"This is the biggest move upward in the history of our company," Westerhaus stated, "and we are most anxious to cordially invite all operators and other coinbiz friends in Ohio to be our guests during our open house celebration."

Royal Distributing, according to Westerhaus, represents such lines in Ohio as Bally Manufacturing, Chicago Dynamic Industries and United Music Corporation.

Westerhaus is aided in the operation of the firm by Harold B. Hoffman, sales manager, who has been with the company since 1947; and Paul Haberttheir, service manager, a veteran of 25 years in the coin machine industry.

Haberttheir pointed up the fact that at Royal Distributing the sale of coin equipment is merely the initial phase of the operation, and that the emphasis is then on continuous excellent service.

Canada Continues Growth Activity

MONTREAL, CANADA—As in the case with practically every country in the world, the economic expansion in Canada, which got under way vigorously in the fall of 1958, may be expected to continue for some time, a review of the Dominion by the Organization for European Economic Co-operation predicted.

"The recent revival and the further liberalization by Europe of imports from the dollar area, and the improving position of primary producing countries provide the setting for continuation of Canada's current growth of activity", the OEEC said in its report.

Rising employment, personal income and high levels of personal savings indicate continued increases in consumer demand in spite of recent tax increases.

Nat'l. Shuffleboard Adds Export Div.

ORANGE, N. J.—Paul Kotler, president, National Shuffleboard Corporation, this city, advised that with the lifting of restrictions in England on games, the firm has proceeded to form a permanent export division designed to sell equipment to Europe.

"We have studied the export market for some time," stated Kotler, "and with the news from England we simultaneously formed our new export department in order that our line of shuffleboards be distributed throughout the Continent."

Kotler advised that contacts were being made with key distributors in Europe to set up an export outlet to handle equipment.

National is currently in production on its new "Satellite", in five different sizes—14-, 16-, 18-, 20- and 22-foot models. Standard equipment includes foolproof automatic play control, translucent lighted scoring area, built in adjusters to assure straight playing field and adjustable timing to eliminate slow play.

"The entire game can be set up on location in about thirty minutes," continued Kotler, "and we believe the unit should sell well in Europe." Kotler concluded by asking that distributors in Europe contact the firm at 291 Cleveland Street, in Orange, New Jersey.

Nyack Slate Back On Regular Production Sked

NYACK, N. Y.—J. W. "Bucky" Van Wyck, president, Nyack Slate Company, this city, following a slow down in pool table and slate top production these past weeks caused by the nation's schools demands for slate, used in the construction of classroom blackboards, advised that the plant is back on regular production and that all back orders were in the process of being shipped.

Van Wyck had concluded a business trip to the midwest last week after touring several major cities where orders were for pool tables and supplies to be shipped before November 15. He advised that orders on pool tables have surpassed comparative figures for last year's business and that the season has already loomed as a successful one for Nyack.

Eric Schneider Reports On U. S. Phonos In Europe And At Fair

HAMBURG, GERMANY — Eric Schneider, president, Eric Schneider G.M.B.H. & Company, this city, advised that in looking back at the recent Frankfort Fair, held several weeks ago in Frankfort, Germany, "I have had an opportunity to realize the superiority and solid position of the United States phonograph lines, considering both the unanimous showing at the fair of all American make models, and also the position they currently occupy on location in Europe."

In commenting about the recent Fair, Schneider advised that American music and games manufacturers were well represented in the exhibit booths. "The complete Bally program was shown by Lowen-Automaten on a stand which to my knowledge was the largest exhibit booth at the Frankfort Fair. Lowen-Automaten also exhibited their line of Seeburg phonographs."

Schneider, distributor for Wurlitzer in Germany, also stated that his phonograph manufacturer was also well represented at the show. "Wurlitzer exhibited the latest stereophonic and monaural models together with its complete line of accessories, console speakers, wall boxes and other components," continued Schneider. The Wurlitzer exhibit booth is pictured below and measured sixty-five feet in length, accommodating two separate listening rooms for the benefit of those wishing to hear Wurlitzer stereo sound without interference.

"Mr. Scheidegger, Zurich, Switzerland, the European representative for Wurlitzer also attended the Fair and left Germany with the proud feeling that 'the world reputation of Wurlitzer music since 1856' was successfully demonstrated to European visitors," said Schneider.

Schneider stated that although stereo records were unavailable just a short time ago in Europe, the predominant position of U.S. phonographs featuring stereo play has convinced German record manufacturers that a full stereo program should be introduced. "German record firms are currently working very hard increasing the stereo record program especially for the juke box business," said Schneider.

The American phonograph in Europe can be seen at the first class locations, continued Schneider, while the European models are in tough competition for the secondary spots.

"I personally had the honor of representing Wurlitzer for the first time at the Frankfort Fair, or at any other German convention. You can be assured that the U.S. models attributed to a large extent the success of the international trade show which was held at Frankfort," concluded Schneider.

N.Y.S. Public Relations Group Hold Meeting

NEW YORK—The Public Relations Committee of the New York State Coin Machine Association, Inc., PR arm of the State association, met at a special meeting on Thursday, October 1, at the offices of the Music Operators of New York, Inc., to discuss the current proposed program, decided upon at a previous meeting, to raise funds to support this group's program in New York State.

The meeting was attended by distributors, operators and the trade press and the outcome of the session was approval of an immediate two-hundred dollar donation, to be made by five music and game distributors from the New York City area, with the remaining distributors to be contacted during a special session of distributors which will be held on Thursday, October 8. General opinion of the outcome of next week's distributor meeting was that the other wholesalers would agree to support the PR program with individual donations.

The subject of a continuing fund raising program, whereby monies will be made available at regular intervals, will also be discussed further by distributors at their meeting October 8.

Al Bodkin, chairman for the PR committee, proposed that results of the wholesalers meeting be announced at the next general meeting of coinmen on Thursday, October 22. At this time, a definite fund raising program will have been agreed upon, and activities along public relations lines will then be instituted, backed by the necessary funds.

The following coinmen attended the meeting: Al "Senator" Bodkin, chairman; Nash Gordon, Treasurer; Irving Holzman, Al Simon, Carl Pavesi, George Holtzman, Gabe Forman, Sandy Moore, Jerry Schweizer, Al Denver, Ren Grevatt, Joe Orleck and Marty Toohey.

Munves 1960 Arcade Catalog Going To Press

NEW YORK — Joe Munves, Mike Munves Corporation, this city, advised last week that the firm's annual arcade and coin equipment catalog, a listing of all types of arcade equipment with complete descriptions, will be published again this year, after a one-year lapse. The directory was not issued last year due to mechanical difficulties preventing compilation of the material.

The Munves catalog has been a part of the arcade and coin business for many years, and since it includes many machines that, while no longer in production, are still of use to arcades all over the world and are available through the Munves outlet, is indispensable to the buying and selling of arcade equipment.

"I've completed most of the mechanical and production work on the catalog," stated Joe Munves, "and as soon as several small items are readied for printing, the catalog will once again be distributed to our worldwide list of coinmen and arcade operators."

New York Wholesalers Study Export
Possibilities In European Market

EASTERN FLASHES

Export contact with Europe these past few weeks has been stimulated by the opening up of England on games. As announced several weeks ago, England's lifting of restrictions on the importation of coin operated used games has helped stir up action along Tenth Avenue, as well as across the nation. Many distribs have been in contact with European outlets for some time, but the pace has been accelerated of late with cables and personal letters and lists going out to the foreign markets in expectations of additional orders, especially from England where licenses have been issued to most applicants, at least at the outset, permitting the purchase of equipment from abroad. Games have predominated since music has had government acceptance previously. Shuffles, bowlers and guns were the mainstays on export orders from New York's coinrow with shipments going direct or through brokers located in the city. Distribs were also considering sending personal representatives to tour the continent with one distrib currently working the Belgium-Holland territory and expecting to wind up in Britain. Reports tend to show a part of the European personality not commonly known over here and that is the tendency for foreign buyers to follow a slower pace in purchasing equipment than has been experienced by wholesalers dealing with U. S. coinmen here. Foreign trade has magnified the age-old "patience is a virtue" cliché, in that several deals have not been consummated until slow deliberation has been made by the importer before he buys. This is a part of the export business and must be accepted as such, until perhaps, the foreign buyer picks up the faster pace of U. S. businessmen. In any event, it isn't expected to be too long before the overall export business increases to the point of where it represents a solid part of a wholesaler's business—and one in which he is as familiar as he is the domestic side of the coin.

Coinmen were saddened at the news of Sam Schlesinger's death on Sun., Sept. 27th. Sam was 73 years of age and was still with Square Amusements in Poughkeepsie, N. Y. when he passed away. Schlesinger was known all over the territory and the trade mourned his passing. He was buried on Mon., Sept. 28th. . . . Irv "Kempy" Kempner, Runyon Sales Company, toured upstate New York last week selling the AMI music line and Bally machines before continuing to Connecticut to see ops about the same deals. Irv has a big territory in the area and from all reports handles it quite well considering the number of operators in the far-flung area. "Kempy" advised us that Mike Tartaglia, Port Chester, N. Y. coinman, captured the Port Chester Golf Tournament on Tues., Sept. 22, defeating his opponent on the 19th hole at the Harrison Country Club, in Westchester. Mike's opponent was the police chief of the town and the event was sponsored by the Port Chester Recreation Commission. Barney "Shugy" Sugerman was in the office early in the week and commented that his son, Myron, landed in Portugal on Sun., Sept. 27th, the first leg of a continental tour that will take him through Germany, Holland, Belgium, England and several other countries while over there. "Shugy" reported that the first cable received merely indicated the export rep's safe arrival and that business reports wouldn't be forthcoming for several more days. Morris Rood busy with sales, the New Jersey branch office, and several other pending items that kept him traveling at a faster pace all week. Lou Wolberg remarked that business has been picking up regularly since Labor Day. . . . Carl Pavesi, president, Westchester Operators Guild, tours the avenue replenishing his inventory and talking "politics" with coinmen along the way. Carl advised that he was a visitor at the Sept. 24th meeting of the N.Y.S.C.M.A. ops and took part in the election of officers. . . . Irving Holzman, Black Sales Co., really swinging with the export market, and selling the United "3-Way" shuffle to local ops at the same time. Irv remarked that business is good and that United's shipment of shuffles came just in time to fill additional orders. "Whitey" Druckman worked the reconditioning equipment to fill used game orders before expediting a truck shipment for delivery to customers. . . . Charlie Rubenstein, veteran arcade man in this town, advised that his son, Bernard, is with the William Morris Agency, and is progressing quite well. Charlie reports local arcade business doing very well. . . . Joe Munves, Mike Munves Corp., busy preparing the firm's equipment catalog, working with manufacturers and past issues searching out photos and descriptions of probably the widest selection of games featured in any book of its kind. Joe reports the catalog will be ready for the printer in a few weeks and then out to the countless names on the Munves mailing list covering just about every country in the world. Mike Munves is leaving for Hot Springs, Va., on Sun., Oct. 4th, with his wife Rose, on a well deserved vacation. No need to mention that "Rusty" will join them. . . . Irving Kaye, Irving Kaye Co., Bklyn., N. Y., visits distribs on the Avenue and comments on trends in the music machine business today. His firm is producing pool tables at a greater rate now than ever before he stated. Irv told us that Buddy Fox is plugging along setting up new accounts for the firm's equipment almost every day of the week. . . . It's a baby boy! And the father, Eddie Czajka, Danbury op, couldn't be happier. Ed and his wife, Joan, are up in the clouds over their first born baby, Thomas Edward, born Sat., Sept. 19th, weighing 8 lbs., 1 3/4 ozs., measuring 19 1/2" in length. And who but the father of his first-born boy would remember all the vital statistics? Many happy returns Eddie! . . . Hymie Koeppel, Koeppel Dist. Co., had to duck out of the office for a minute but left word that Harry Koeppel and his wife were off to Key West for one week to visit with his daughter and son-in-law, who are stationed with the U. S. Navy down Florida way. . . . Meyer Parkoff, Atlantic N.Y. Corp., still pushing strong on diversification and its paying off. Parkoff has been improving his export business with regular contact with the foreign coin market plus domestic sales on background music, Seeburg stereo, Seeburg cigarette machines and vending machines. Of course, sales mgr. Murray Kaye has kept busy talking with ops setting up many sales on equipment and handling the multitudes of paper work that all goes with the job of selling. . . . Distribs from the New York State area are expected to fill the M. O. N. Y. offices on Thurs., Oct. 1st, when Al Bodkin chairmans a special public relations meeting. Attorneys and trade press reps will round out the exec committee attendance stated Bodkin.

Problems! World Series Tickets Hard To Get

— CHICAGO CHATTER —

The hub-bub and excitement last week centered around the steady stream of congratulations and well wishes pouring into this office from coinmen in the area. The big reason was, of course, the announcement of the mushrooming of new offices of The Cash Box in Europe. This great stride forward opens 4 big markets in Europe for the coin machine industry. . . . After reporting to us that production and shipping of Gottlieb's 4 player pinball game "Sweet Sioux" is 'way up at D. Gottlieb & Company, Alvin Gottlieb further advised that construction on the Gottlieb Memorial Hospital in West suburban Leyden Township is forging ahead of schedule. The first floor section is almost complete, and Dave Gottlieb now feels that the established completion date December, 1960 will easily be reached. This is progress!

DAVE GOTTLIEB

Art Weinand, sales director of Chicago Dynamic Industries, infos that there has been a big September pickup in sales at Chicago Coin, with plenty of action on all ChiCoin games, including "King Bowler," "Queen Bowler," "Playland" gun game, and "Bowmaster." Art hints about some new ideas being mulled over, but insists that we'll just have to wait a little while longer. . . . Ralph Sheffield, sales chief of Midway Manufacturing, is feeling very chipper these days, and underlines his exultation by saying "We're busier than '2 cats on a hot tin roof' these days. Hank Ross, Marcine Wolverton and I have very little time to confer during this hectic period—and, we love it!" Ralph had his tongue-in-cheek expression when he hinted that we'll probably have more exciting news from him next week and we'll all just have to sweat it out.

Apparently most everyone in coinbiz is in a creative mood these fall days. Al Warren tried to mask his feelings about a couple of new ideas being hatched at Auto-Bell Novelty when we confronted him. However, he finally broke down and confessed that he and Zeke Wolf will shortly break with the news. Howie Freer, Auto-Bell's west coast representative, tells us there's been a lot of activity among distributors and operators with Auto-Bell's "Galloping Dominos" electronic upright game. . . . Bill DeSelm, United Manufacturing's energetic sales manager, reports that both Johnny Casola and Al Thoeke hit the road last week. Johnny's itinerary is aimed at Nashville, and from there he moseys over to Greenwood, Mississippi, to call on Abe Malouf at his Malouf Music and La Flore Music operations. Thoeke planned to Salt Lake City to call on Dan Stewart, and from there he will scoot over to Seattle, San Francisco, and Los Angeles. Herb Oettinger informs us he's really elated over the progress being made by the executive committee of the Information Council of the Coin-Operated Industry. He looks forward to an intensive public relations drive one of these days.

While on the subject of the PR council, Herb Jones, a very articulate member of the committee, urges everyone to read his report elsewhere in this issue for he feels that everyone should be informed of the progress. Both Herb and Bill O'Donnell expressed their elation to us over the recent appointment of Joe Westerhaus' Royal Distributing Company to handle the Bally line of amusement games in the southern Ohio territory. . . . When Jolly Joe Robbins departed for some unknown fishing pond in Upper Michigan he left no phone number where Gil Kitt, Empire Coin's owner, or Jack Burns can reach him. It certainly will be no one's fault if he comes home with an empty fish bucket. It's a good thing Joe was away when the Chicago Bear football "powerhouse" was humbled by the "lowly" Green Bay Packers recently. Joe, a dyed-in-the-wool Bear fan, has high hopes for his charges for this season. . . . John Frantz, J. F. Frantz Manufacturing, informed us that the Eversharp Company is using his rifle target and rifle to illustrate ease of loading the new Eversharp ballpoint pen in their NBC national television commercials. He said that Eversharp's ad agency contacted him originally to set up the promotion.

BILL O'DONNELL

Sam Lewis, vice prexy of Williams Electronic Manufacturing, tells us gleefully that he's definitely enjoying this fall season, what with a heavy influx of sales on the "Titan" rifle game, and "Golden Bells" pinball game. Sam info's that Sam Schwartz of Montreal, Canada, planned into Chi to take in the World Series baseball games between the White Sox and L.A. Dodgers. While here he dropped into Williams Electronic to visit with Lewis and Sam Stern. . . . Paul Huebsch, J. H. Keeney & Company, tells us "Touchdown," the new football type electronic upright amusement game, is enjoying a heavy following all over the country due to the timeliness of the theme. Meanwhile Paul winks his eye when we ask if there's anything new on tab. "Any day now," he sez. . . . Atlas Music Company conducted a service school for operators of cigarette vendors and their servicemen last Wednesday, according to Nate Feinstein. The Seeburg cigarette vendor is amassing wide acceptance all over, Nate assured us. Those in attendance at the service session at Atlas were: Newell Bellamy of Seeburg, and Eddie Ginsburg, Feinstein, Frank Bache, and Gene Waldman for Atlas.

Indiana operators are urged to rush requests for tickets to the Annual Banquet being held October 14 by the Music Operators' Society of St. Joseph Valley, by A. C. Evans, the entertainment chairman. Contact Evans at 130 North Ironwood Drive in Mishawaka, Indiana. . . .

While sales on Rock-Ola's "Tempo" monaural and stereo model phonographs are humming along to the satisfaction of Dave Rockola, Donald Rockola, Ed Doris, Kurt Kluever, Les Rieck, and George Hinner, Doris decided to call on the firm's distributors in Canada last week, knowing that sales and service problems are in capable hands at the plant. He's expected back at his desk next week. . . . Morrie Wiczor and Edward Jacobson of Wico Corporation returned from their week in West Virginia, where they attended the MOV convention to exhibit Wico stereo kits. Bob Mullins was recently appointed south eastern representative by Morrie Wiczor.

Joe Kline, First Coin, is really frantic these days, since his secretary was hospitalized. Joe is striving, with able assistance from Sam Kolber and Fred Kline, to answer the many inquiries he's been receiving from foreign markets. Joe, Sam, and Freddie are playing host this week to many operators who are in town for the World Series baseball games. . . . Don Moloney and Mac Brier, Donan Distributors, trying desperately to convince visiting ops and other friends that World Series tickets are really hard to get. Most people think, according to Mac, that all you have to do is phone Comiskey Park and request tickets. Even scalpers are finding it hard to get the scarce ducats. . . . Clarence Schuyler assures us that Games, Inc.'s "Wild Cat" and "Twin Wild Cat" electronic upright games are definitely the finest games he ever created for the trade. Naturally, he exclaims, sales are proving this wonderful fact.

JOEL STERN

Mike Spagnola, AMI Sales, infos that he is now distributing the Rowe line of cigarette machines in Chi. Thus far, he sez, response has been terrific. . . . Joel Stern tells us that this fall season is surpassing his and Len Micon's expectations. Lines receiving the greatest play are Games, Incorporated's "Wild Cat" and "Twin Wild Cat" upright games, Rock-Ola's "Tempo" phonographs, and Bally's "Lotta-Fun" pinball amusement game. Joel is another one of the patient sufferers of the World Series baseball ticket drought. Joel tried every combination available to eke as many tickets as he could get out of Bill Veeck's aggregation to no avail. Next year, he hints, he may take a trip to the North Pole—providing the White Sox win the highly coveted pennant again. . . . Marvel's Estelle Bye reports that the heaviest activity at Marvel Manufacturing is on replacement parts for phonographs and scoreboards for shuffle alleys. However, nothing has ever surpassed sales on "Lucky Horoscope" in Marvel's history, according to Estelle and Ted Rubey. Clayton Nemeroff in town this past week, and readying another one of his regular eastern jaunts.

Carl and Bob Greene, Tower Distributors, revealed to us that the "Mink Stole" promotion they have been running to keep sales of Wurlitzer phonographs at a peak has been highly successful. The promotion will continue for a while longer. . . . Ben Coven, Coven Music prexy, and Irv Ovitz just concluded a hectic week at the National Trade Boat Show, at the Navy Pier in Chicago.

France To Ease Import Restrictions

Coin Firms Should Request Removal Of Ban On Industries Equipment

PARIS, FRANCE — Reports emanating from this country indicate that France is making strong efforts to clear away its discriminatory controls on imports from the dollar area.

Officials of the French delegation to the World Bank and International Monetary Fund meetings being held in Washington, D.C., U.S.A., confidentially predict further dollar liberalization moves will be announced by the French Government in the next month.

It is pointed out that since President DeGaulle came into power, fundamental changes have been made in French economy, with the country shortly arriving at self-sufficiency in many products.

It is hoped that coin machine interests will make every effort to get the French Government to rescind its import restrictions on all types of coin operated equipment, following the recent policy of the British government, which since July has lifted restrictions on music machines first, and then on amusement machines.

Atlantic And Gulf Coast Ports Hit By Port Strike

Hope For Early Settlement As North Group Ready For Truce

NEW YORK—As we go to press it appears likely that the entire Atlantic and Gulf Coasts will be tied up by a longshoremen strike.

Altho the North Atlantic group, represented by the International Longshoremen's Association, agreed at midnight, September 1, to a 15-day truce to extend their negotiations, the South Atlantic and Gulf coast groups struck. As a result of the move by the southern group, it is expected that longshoremen from Maine to Texas will back up the strikers and go out. The first hint of this major movement came when a local in New York City struck, despite the extension agreement here.

It is reported that South and Gulf Coast longshoremen struck because management in these areas refused to go along with management in the North with an agreement that any gains won in the new contract would be made retroactive.

This strike, of course, affects shipments of coin operated equipment. Midwest shippers can still take advantage of traffic thru the St. Lawrence Seaway which will operate until Winter sets in. Experts figure some eight weeks still remain.

St. Lawrence Seaway Great Boon To Midwest Shippers

Will Be Open For About Eight More Weeks

NEW YORK — With the demand from European countries mounting, especially from Britain, (now that import restrictions on all coin operated equipment have been removed) a most important factor to U.S. firms is the facility for shipping their machines overseas.

A development this past year which has been a tremendous help to mid-west coin firms is the service available thru shipping thru the St. Lawrence Seaway. Reports now coming thru indicate that shipping thru the Seaway is expected to surpass by far the dreams of its supporters. With some eight weeks still to go before Winter weather forces curtailment of service, volume is up 59% over the year before.

Altho many millions have been poured in the Seaway, the spending hasn't stopped. It is reported that most port directors on the Great Lakes are prepared to continue to improve their facilities, anticipating continually increased business.

It is stated that the St. Lawrence Seaway Authority in Canada, under whose jurisdiction the Welland Canal is operated, is going to foot the bill for some much needed improvements which could boost the canal's capacity for handling ships by 25%. The extension work is scheduled to be carried out during the Winter months when the waterway is closed to ocean shipping. It is expected to be completed by the opening of inland navigation in 1960. There are also indications that the Government will make some regulatory changes next season which should also speed up the movement of ships.

Atlas Holds Cigarette Machine Service School

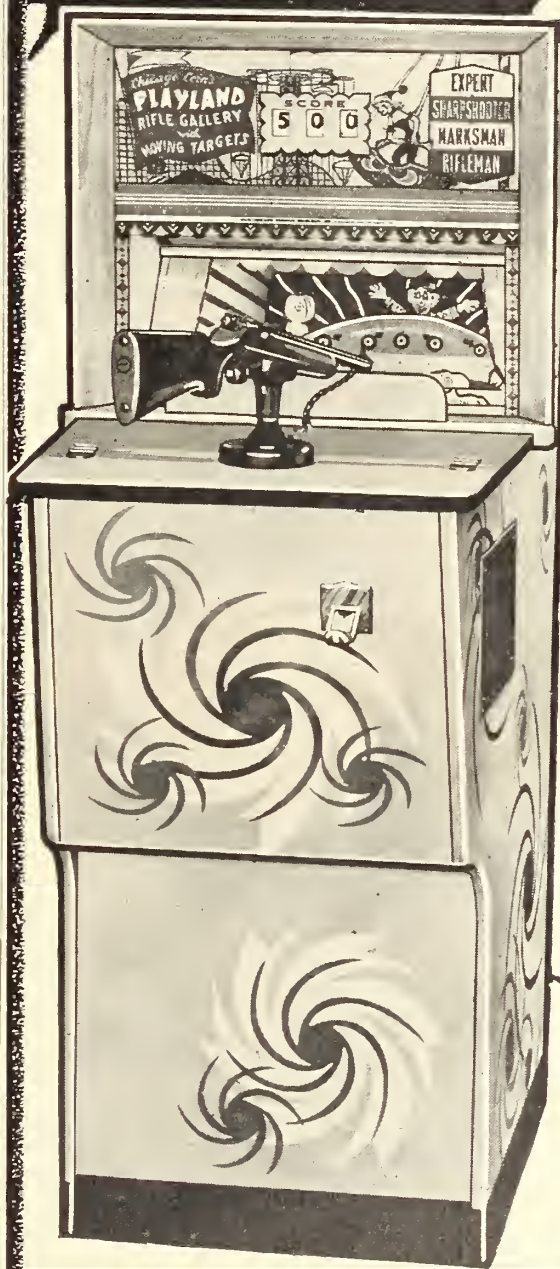

NATE FEINSTEIN

CHICAGO — Nate Feinstein, Atlas Music Company, this city, reported last week that the Seeburg distributor held a service school, September 30, for operators of cigarette vendors and their service personnel at the firm's offices.

Feinstein stated that the service session, which was between the hours of 7 p.m. and 10 p.m., was slated at this time to familiarize operators of cigarette vendors and their servicemen in this area with the servicing of Seeburg cigarette machines.

Among those present at the session representing Seeburg and Atlas Music were: Newell Bellamy, sales engineer

CALIFORNIA CLIPPINGS

With business for 1959 heading into the "home stretch" along "coin machine row," operators and distributors alike report the economic picture at present is very bright with sales in some instances hitting new highs. . . . At Simon Distributing, Roy Bazelon, formerly in the coin machine business in Chicago, in town from Florida and stopping by to visit with Jack Simon. Bazelon is presently living in Hollywood, Fla. Sonny Lomborg returned from San Diego to report a successful selling trip. Sonny went on to say they have had word from several of their foreign customers, commenting they have received some of the cleanest equipment on the various orders recently shipped by Simon's. . . . Barbara Chandler, at Leuenhagen's "record bar," states U.C.L.A. looks like it could have another winning football team this year, with a good possibility of beating their traditional rival U.S.C. Claire, Mary and Kay Solle all going to Barstow over the week-end to visit Lela Smith and attend the Rodeo. Mary thinks band leader Ted Weems may have come up with a winner on the Wynne label titled "Mickey." Patty Page's "Goodbye Charlie," on Mercury, has all the ingredients necessary to put it over the top, according to Claire. "Just Ask Your Heart," Frankie Avalon's Chancellor slice, has Barbara all excited and predicting it could go all the way. Kay this week likes "Island Melody," featuring Bud Dant on Coral, stating it's one of the prettiest to come out in some time. . . . At Minthorne Music, Matt Nordberg spending several days in the Bakersfield area visiting the operators. Minthorne Music will here-to-fore be closed on Saturdays, however there will be an answering service to take all calls. Ralph Cragan explained the call service will be available all day Saturday as well as week-day evenings after 5:30. Orders given in the evening will be filled the following morning, Ralph stated. Minthorne has had more interest from operators in the new Seeburg 1,000 selection background music system than even the factory had anticipated. Wayne Davis is busy concentrating sales on the new Seeburg "coffee bar" and Seeburg Cigarette Vendor. . . . At C. A. Robinson & Co., the United Service School, conducted by the head engineer for United Music Corp. Roy Kraehmer, was held at Robinson's last week with an excellent turnout. Kraehmer was assisted by Andy Lanzisero, service mgr. at Robinson's. Hank Tronick reports the new Chicago Coin "Queen" bowling alley and "Playland" gallery are teaming up to give the operator the equipment he now requires for upgrading his game locations and increasing his fall collections. Williams' "Golden Bells" shipment arrived and went right out, Hank stated, without anyone at Robinson's even getting a good look at the new 5-ball novelty. The Williams' "Titan" gun at this point is proving more successful than its predecessors. Hank went on to say that since Labor Day, the advent of the fall season has seen a great deal of activity with operators hungrily seeking new and good used equipment to take advantage of increased business. From a financial standpoint, Hank informed, the operators today are in a better position to buy than they have been in some time. . . . At Norty's Music Center, Roger Smith, of 77 Sunset Strip fame, in to chat with Norty and spin his new Warner Bros. release. Norty predicted the disk should get a lot of action. The Johnny Mathis version of "Misty," on Columbia, has got that million-seller sound, according to Norty. Louis Baruch is betting heavy on Chuck Berry to come up with a big one on Chess titled, "Childhood Sweetheart." "There You Go," Clyde McPhatter's current effort on Atlantic, is Frances Hoffman's idea of a waxing that could take off fast. . . . Bill Happel, at Badger Sales, in San Francisco over the week-end. Happel also informed that Roy Bazelon, one of the old time distributors in town for a short stay, dropped in to visit. Keeney's new Popcorn machine, Happel continued, has been received very well and sales to the operators have started off at a brisk pace. Marshall Ames informs the AMI model "J" 200 stereo phonograph has had a sudden spurt in sales the past week. "Rocky" Nesselroad reports in the shop they had one of the busiest weeks in the past several months. . . . At California Music, Jack Lewis stopped by to say hello to Sam Ricklin. Lewis formerly worked for Sam and is now head of A & R at United Artists Records. Sam also mentioned that business the past week continued at a good clip. Buddy Robinson this week tabs "Misty" as a can't miss item for the hot Columbia artist, Johnny Mathis. . . . Charlie Daniels, at Paul A. Laymon's, states business in general has been picking up the past week with phonographs and games both stepping out. . . . At American Coin Machine, Vinny Lanzy commented that they have plans to remodel their showroom in the near future in order to display new and used equipment. American presently has more used equipment on hand than ever before, Vinny went on, due to the recent acquisition of a warehouse now filled with used equipment. Business the past week continued good at American, with both used and new equipment moving well. . . . Some of the visiting operators on Pico this week were: Raymond Mojica, Bakersfield; W. R. Edling, Ojai; Mr. & Mrs. C. Gauger, Ventura; Harry Duensing, Costa Mesa; Ray Berra, San Bernardino; Jim Pritchett, Santa Ana; Bill Bradley, Covina; Charlie Koski, Long Beach; Clyde Womack, Palm Springs; Larry Handford, Lompoc; Perry Irwin, Ventura; Charlie Peddicord, Buena Park.

Mike Tartaglia Wins Port Chester Tourney

Edges Opponent With 275 Yard
Shot On 19th Hole

PORT CHESTER, N.Y.—The Daily Item, local Port Chester newspaper daily, carried a banner headline across the sports pages last week advising that "Tartaglia Captures Port Chester Golf Tournament". The news story referred of course to Mike Tartaglia, County Vending Company, popular coinman and golfer from this area.

Tartaglia won the golf tourney in an extra hole test, taking top honors on the nineteenth hole with a "tremendous tee shot, 275 yards out in the fairway", reported the newspaper.

The golfing coinman, who is just one of Paul Tartaglia's athletic family, veteran coinman from Port Chester, beat out his opponent Police Chief Ponty, from the same town. The tourney was sponsored by the Port Chester Recreation Commission during the group's sixth annual outing. The golf tournament was held at the Harrison Country Club.

Tartaglia received his winner's award at a dinner attended by more than one hundred golfers and guests held after the match.

The tourney, a widely publicized sporting event in this area, was given wide press coverage with local papers featuring the results. The Citizen, another Westchester County family newspaper, also carried the story of Tartaglia's triumph.

THIS WEEK'S USED MACHINE QUOTATIONS

How To Use "THE CASH BOX PRICE LISTS"

FOREWORD: Many times, wide differences appear in the quotation of high and low prices of certain equipment. Like any true reporter "The Cash Box Price Lists" can only feature the market prices as they are quoted. "The Cash Box Price Lists" act exactly the same as the market quotation board at the Stock Exchange—posting the prices as they are quoted for the past week, regardless of how much they may seem to be out of line. Some prices do not change for months. "The Cash Box Price Lists," rather than show no price, retain the last known quotations for such equipment so that the subscriber at least has the last known prices as a basis to work with. Prices may be very widely divergent. Someone on the West Coast may feel a certain machine worth $150.00 whereas someone on the East Coast may think it worth but $75.00. Of course, serial, appearance, demand, territory, quantity, and condition of equipment must be taken into consideration. (Some equipment offered by outstanding firms, having a reputation for shipping completely reconditioned machines, will be offered at higher prices than others, due to the added cost of reconditioning.) "The Cash Box Price Lists" reports each quotation exactly as it is made and depends on the subscriber to make average price adjustments to fit the peculiarities of his territory.

METHOD: "The Cash Box Price Lists" should be read as follows: First price listed is lowest price quoted for the week; Second price listed is highest price quoted.
